French brings cheer to local residents

Susie French, organizer of the Pendleton Cowboy Country Christmas, spent the weekend making cheer for many local residents in Morrow County. French spends many hours organizing the "Cowboy Christmas" held in Pendleton each year that makes money for children who aren't as fortunate as others. She has a group of shoppers that collects gifts for the recipients and another group of wrappers that spend Sunday wrapping and organizing the gifts that they deliver to the Heppner Neighborhood Center. This is French's 14th year delivering Christmas cheer. Pictured are Susie French, Warren Givens and Judy Barber. -Photo by Sandy Matthews
