CARD OF THANKS

Dear Family, Friends, Classmates, Neighbors and Good People:

This Tuesday, December 25th, our son, Roy Michael Hale Proctor, will be celebrating his 20th birthday. He is reaching this milestone because of the support and dedication of many incredible people.

Before the diagnosis in January, 2000, of Fanconi Anemia that was causing his bone marrow to fail, Roy thought that everyone felt as tired as he did. Now just seven-months post-marrow transplant, he says that he doesn't remember ever feeling as good as he does now. His immune system, blood counts and bone marrow continue to improve and get stronger.

The anonymous unrelated, unmatched marrow donor who gave Roy the 'gift of life' has written him hoping to meet someday. This will be possible one year after transplant if both he and his donor agree. Roy looks forward to the day when he can thank his donor in person.

Although there are many doctor and hospital visits ahead of him, including having all of his childhood vaccinations over again, his medical team has okayed him to begin college in January.

Roy realizes that a great community he grew up in and continues to be amazed by all the support he has received. He looks forward to continuing his nursing college classes and to resume volunteering with children in pediatric cancer centers.

What a difference a year makes!

We did not travel this journey alone. God was with us every step. And during our six-month stay in New York City at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center's Pediatric Transplant Center, we could feel the support of prayers, positive thoughts, love, caring, and kindness sent our way. That is what got us through the tough parts.

We have been truly humbled by all the contributions and donations so generously given to help our family with medical expenses.

Please accept our sincere "Thank You" for everything; the financial help, the spiritual support, those who joined the National Marrow Donor Registry as potential donors, and for hugs given and kind words spoken. I wish I could think of a better way to express our heartfelt appreciation, but there aren't enough words in the world to do so.

Merry Christmas from our home to yours. God Bless Everyone!

Thank you,
 Mike and Kay Proctor
