Ione Varsity Boys take seventh win in a row

The Ione Cardinals racked up two league wins over the weekend, downing Arlington in Ione on Friday and defeating Helix on the road on Saturday. Winning their seventh game in a row, the Cardinals now sport a season record of 10-5, 6-1 in Big Sky play.

On Friday, January 11, the Cardinals hit the court running. Ione put seven baskets on the board, mostly short shots under the basket, before Arlington got on the board. Kip Krebs and Clay Morter scored six each and Kevin Fowler had five in that first period as Arlington struggled to contain the Cardinals' inside game. Ione led 19-5 after one.

Arlington hit four of their nine three-pointers in the second quarter and matched Ione score for score. With a Honker three-pointer at the buzzer, the Cards' halftime lead was 39-25.

Arlington continued shooting at a hot pace. For the game, the Honkers shot 39% from behind the three point line which was a better percentage than their overall field goal shooting. However, the Cardinals maintained their own frantic offensive pace and never let the Honker get closer than 12 points, which happened in the opening moments of the third quarter. The Cards led 60-41 after three quarters before pounding home the 74-51 win.

Four Cardinals were in double figures led by Paul Hams with 19. Kip Krebs had a strong game with 18. Clay Morter added 12 and Matt Hams had 10. Paul Hams continued to make fantastic passes, dishing out 13 assists in the contest. The Cards out-rebounded Arlington 38-25 led by Kip Krebs and Clay Morter with nine each. Ione shot 59% from the field on 38 of 65 shooting.

"All in all, I was very happy with the team play," said Coach Dennis Stefani. "We played a great offensive game but our defense had some weakness at times."

On January 12, the Cards faced a winless Helix team in Helix. In the early going, Helix hung tough, briefly leading the game at 5-4. The first quarter ended with Ione up 14-7. In the second quarter, the Grizzlies closed the lead to 18-14 midway through the period before the Cards launched an 8-0 run, a run that marked the beginning of the end for Helix. Ione outscored Helix 25-13 in the second quarter to take a 39-20 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, Alan Rietmann hit the first six points and Clay Morter dropped in five more before Helix got on the board. The Cardinals outscored the Grizzlies 32-6 in the period before coasting home with the 83-37 win.

Balanced scoring with five players in double figures was again the winning combination. Paul Hams led the way with 21 points followed by brother, Matt Hams with 16. Alan Rietmann had 12 and Kevin Fowler and Clay Morter each had 10. Paul Hams had another double-double, adding 10 assists to his points. He also notched six steals. The Cardinals were led on the boards Kip Krebs and Justin Archer with six each. Ione shot 35-74 for 47% from the field and 33% from the three point line.

"A good second quarter and a great third quarter was the difference," said Coach Dennis Stefani. He also noted that the outing was "another great team game" with five players in double figures.

This weekend, the Cardinals host Nixyaawii on Friday night and travel to Sherman County on Saturday.

DON'T SELL A HOUSE - SELL A HOME

If you are considering selling your home, remember this: buyers are not looking for a roof to keep the rain out - they're looking for a new lifestyle. You are not selling a house - you're selling a HOME!

Set this "home" stage for buyer showings:

Keep your home clean, neat and cozy at all times. You might have to show it on short notice. The kitchen is the focal point of any home. Everything should be spic and span, with dishes washed and excess paraphernalia tucked away. Beds should be made, and kids' clothes stowed and not left where kids usually leave them.

Decorator touches help a lot: vases or pots of flowers, colorful pillows, mirrors on the walls to make rooms look more spacious. Mow the lawn, touch up any peeling paint. Don't start major renovations, but do make obviously needed small repairs, such as a leaky faucet, torn screen or peeling paint. Remember, you're selling a "home".
