CARD OF THANKS

Thank you to Larry Mills, Butch Laughlin and Nella Britt for donating your cans to us for our trip to Russia. We collected over $80. Wow! Special thanks to Danny Picard who helped at the store with the machine.

We will continue the can drives until we leave at the end of June. Call Sharon at 676-9166 or 676-9157.

CAPECO is now taking applications for their Project With Industries program. If you are a job seeker in Umatilla/Morrow counties who has a documented disability, are receiving Social Security for a disability or are a current vocational rehabilitation customer, you may be eligible for our services. These include pre-employment training skills, labor market information, computer training and on-the-job training.

CAPECO also offers a wide range of valuable services for businesses. We recruit, screen applicants for the skills you need, do background checks and drug tests, and offer training regarding customer service skills, workplace basics, as well as vocational training to eligible staff to upgrade your workforce. We can also train your HR department regarding tax incentives and following ADA guidelines. There may also be wage reimbursement incentives available.

For more information please call Georgia King at 278-5668 or 1-800-752-1139 or email at gking@capeco-works.org.
