Deadline: Monday at 5 p.m.

CARD OF THANKS

A lot of things I do not remember, so if I don't mention it in this thank you note, I apologize.

I want to thank Heppner ambulance and its crew for coming out to our house twice, once for my husband, which he refused, and second for me.

I want to thank all the nurses in the ER and the hospital for taking real good care of me. Thank you Dr. Anderson for being there on Easter eve. I do remember you looked real tired. You sent me off to St. Anthony's and they flew me off to OHSU in Portland.

I want to thank Fr. Condon for keeping an eye on Ted, and a brown bag he gave us. Thanks to my nephew Jerry Hamer, for helping out his Uncle Ted. Thanks to Meals on Wheels for keeping food in the refrigerator. I really want to thank Gayle Arbogast and Judy Aaron for coming to Portland to pick me up, since they asked me at the hospital if I could go back home by Greyhound and I didn't have any clothes. The ambulance picked me up here with just my nightgown. But, I really want to thank you two for getting lost in Portland for me. There are some nice people here.

I want to thank the Altar Society at St. Patrick's Church for all they did. We had an excellent meal.

I really want to say thank you again. I really was sick. I'm very weak, but I'm getting better each day.

The Family of Cindy Breidenbach would like to thank everyone for their prayers, cards, food, flowers and gifts.

Thanks to Keith Brudevold for the wonderful memorial service; Carley Drake for the music; Laurie Kiser for the vocal songs. Special thanks to the Elks Lodge, the Elks Ladies Auxiliary and Heppner United Methodist Church Women's Group for arranging the dinner. You did a wonderful meal.

A very special thanks to Pat and Trish Sweeney for the understanding they showed at the time of our sorrow for our loved one.
