

South Morrow County Scholarship recipients announced

The South Morrow County Scholarship Trust announces the recipients of the 2008 scholarships in the amount of $750 each. They are Emily Rietmann, Whitney Matthews, Sean Murray, Kip Krebs, Kelsey Wolff and Alan Rietmann. The six students were selected out of 23 applicants on the basis of academic achievement, chosen field of study, financial need, school participation, degree of effort the student has made in seeking sources for college and personal characteristics for success and school citizenship.

Emily Rietmann is the daughter of Joe and Donna Rietmann from Ione. She is planning to attend Washington State University and Honors College in the fall to pursue an education in environmental law. She is very active in school playing varsity volleyball, basketball, tennis and track. She served as class officer in 2008. She has participated in many community activities, serving as 4H ambassador, Tri-County 4H camp counselor, volunteer referee and school reading volunteer. A member and officer of Ione High School National Honor Society and student body officer.

Whitney Matthews attends Heppner High School and will be attending Boise State University where she will take classes for pre-medicine. She is the daughter of Skip and Sandy Matthews of Heppner. She has been on the honor roll for four years and has served as an officer of National Honor Society. She is a member of FFA, FBLA and Stars. She was a volunteer for Heppner Chamber and won Student of the Year from the Heppner Chamber of Commerce in 2008. She is a willing volunteer for many other community organizations.

Sean Murray of Heppner is the son of John and Ann Murray. He has been accepted to Carroll College in Helena, MT, Oregon State University, University of Portland, and the University of Idaho. He plans to pursue a degree in the medical field, either pharmacy or medicine. Murray has served on the student council as Student Body secretary and is senior class vice president. He was selected for honor band and is a member of the National Honor Society. He was in the knowledge bowl all four years of school and played varsity football his junior and senior years. He is active in the community working on Mustang Mop-Up, an assisted living volunteer, and volunteer umpire for Little League.

Kip Krebs from Ione is the son of Skye and Penny Krebs. He is considering Oregon State University, working towards a degree in agricultural business management. He is an active volunteer in his community, working on Wallowa County Fair Grounds clean-up for five years, working at Portland Homeless Shelter, working with the youth group and a book fair volunteer. He is a member of the National Honor Society, Student Body president and football team captain. He has played varsity football, basketball and track. He was a state finalist for Wendy's Heisman award.

Kelsey Wolff is the daughter of Karen and Tom Wolff of Heppner. She has been accepted to Gonzaga University in Spokane, WA where she will be pursuing a degree in business administration. Wolff is the president of the National Honor Society this year. She is on the Knowledge Master team, band, pep band, honor band, FBLA, Stars, choir, debate club and in the talented and gifted program. She won the East Oregonian Outstanding student award and the Oregon Music Teachers association certificate of award.

Alan Rietmann from Ione is the son of Brian and Sharon Rietmann. He plans on attending Oregon State University and Linn-Benton Community College using their degree partnership program. Rietmann is going to pursue courses in the agricultural business field. He is a member of the National Honor Society, class officer, a member of International Club and active in sports. He played varsity football, basketball and track. He is very involved in community activities as a member of St. Williams youth group, Ione Green House volunteer, and Cardinal Booster Club membership drive.

The board of directors of the scholarship trust include Bill Rietmann, president; Barb Hayes, vice-president; Del LaRue, treasurer; Sharon Harrison, secretary; Missy Cutsforth, Martha Munkers and Carri Grieb. The South Morrow County Scholarship Trust was established several years ago with the mission to grow funds to provide scholarships to graduating senior from Heppner and Ione High Schools and to eventually take the place of the Troedson Scholarship Fund which will be discontinued in the year 2023.

Memorial Day ceremony to be held in Ione

On Monday, May 26, Ione American Legion Post 95# and the Legion Auxiliary are planning a Memorial Day event. A memorial ceremony honoring Ione soldiers killed in combat will begin at the Ione Community School at 10:30 a.m. The event will then move to the legion hall where a flag retirement ceremony and a dignified disposal of unserviceable flags will take place.

Refreshments will follow inside the hall. There will be a drop box at the Bank of Eastern Oregon Ione Branch and at Colliers Market for old flags. The community is encouraged to attend. The proper and honorable disposal of our flag is a very moving experience that should be experienced by every American.

For more information call Bob Baker At 422-7583 or Irene Holtz at 422-7487.

Pie crust making class to be held in preparation for Celebrate Heppner week

Have you ever wished you could make a great pie crust? Wouldn't it be even better to have your children learn so they could make you a pie and/or enter it in the dessert auction during Celebrate Heppner days for someone else to enjoy? Peggy Fishburn has graciously volunteered and John and Nancy Gochnauer have agreed to assist in holding a pie crust making class.

The class will be held on Tuesday, June 10 from 10 a.m. - 1 p.m. at the Senior Center. Ingredients and pie tins will be provided, so pre-registration is required to participate. Call the Chamber of Commerce @676-5536 to register.

Ione students take field trip to OSU

The crop science class at Ione Community School attended an overnight field trip to Portland and Corvallis to get a first hand look at the College of Agriculture at Oregon State University and the marketing and transportation issues at the Port of Portland. "My favorite part was OSU," said senior Max Trahan. "College really is attainable."

The trip was made possible by a grant from the Ione Education Foundation, students were able to observe the marketing strategies and transportation logistics of the Port of Portland and how it affects cities and towns upstream from Portland. Marketing director for the port, Steve Mickelson, personally escorted the group through the loading docks and set them up in the executive board room as he talked about the port operations.

While at OSU, Ione students were given a personal tour of the campus by two College of Agriculture ambassadors, visited the Asian noodle and bread baking lab and observed plant genetics in the greenhouse with all of their respective researchers. Additionally, the group sat through CSS 205, Soils: Sustainable Ecosystems college class before having pizza in the crop science department student lounge. The College of Agricultural Sciences was extremely generous with their time and talents as they showed the neat things available to students on campus and some of the extraordinary research and study being conducted.
