

Ione National Honor Society hosts Youth Track Meet

The Ione chapter of the National Honor Society hosted their 3rd annual Youth Track Meet last Sunday. The young athletes participated in several events, including a tennis ball throw, standing broad jump and running events ranging from 25M to 400M. Ribbons were awarded in all age groups for each event. Members of the National Honor Society, the Ione Track team, and several other high school students all helped make the track meet fun for every participant and spectator. The Youth Track Meet is a community service project for the NHS chapter. Donations were accepted for Creative Care Preschool in the amount of $120.
