CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank the Heppner Chamber of Commerce for the wonderful award they presented to me at the Town and Country banquet. I still can't believe it. Thank you all very much.
 Kay Robinson

Words cannot express the appreciation for the kindness and wonderful love I received at St. Anthony, Pioneer Memorial, and Walla Walla St. Mary, also the EMT and ambulance crew.
 A big thank you to everyone for their prayers, cards, phone calls, flowers, visits, and other acts of kindness during my long stay in the hospital. Special thank you to my family for being there and giving me so much encouragement and support.

 Love and God Bless all of you.

We would like to thank the Heppner and Lexington communities for all their support concerning the fire in our home on December 20th starting with the Heppner and Lexington Volunteer Fire Departments. It is very fortunate for us to live in communities that show so much care and concern for fellow citizens. I would especially like to thank Keith Price, Dick Sargent and the Willow Creek Baptist Church, The Northwestern Motel, the employees of the Bank of Eastern Oregon and the Heppner Elementary School; Pam and Tom Norton; and numerous others- Known or unknown- who have helped us during this time.

Sincerely
 Dan and Sandra Van Liew

Dear Heppner Chamber of Commerce,

Thank you for the Student of the Year Award. I am honored to be the recipient. Heppner has been an ideal place to live and has provided me with many opportunities. I have been blessed to be raised here amongst so many kind people.

I would not be where I am today without all of my past and present teachers. Also, Mr. Stone has been very caring and supportive, always with suckers in hand.

As the year is winding down, I am sad to leave Heppner High School but also excited for whatever lies ahead. I will always be grateful to have lived in such an amazing community.

Thank You,
 Maggie Armato
