Meyer takes 2nd place in poetry contest

Julia Meyer of Heppner High School recently won second place at the National Garden Club regional poetry contest. Following is her poem, entitled "Nature and Me":

 Do you remember?
 I do.
 that day at the beach
 We danced with the gulls wheeling around us
 as the seals slumbered unaware and, light as air
 I spun, leaped and ran frolicking
 in the pure sunlight
 sand cushioning my feet

Julia Meyer

and the waves my soul.

But nothing lasts forever,
 Or so I'm told,
 And dark clouds on the horizon
 soon loomed above weighing me back down.
 to Earth.

Do you remember?
 I do.
 the tears salty as the sea
 Tracing patterns down my cheeks.
 when the storm clouds broke.
 The tempest gave no quarter,
 No mercy.
 No pity.
 and the sand beneath my feet
 Turned to stone.

Wolff named Girls State recipient

The American Legion Auxiliary recently announced Ashley Wolff as the 2009 Girls State recipient. Wolff is the daughter of Karen and Tom Wolff of Heppner. She is a junior at HHS.

Ashley Wolff

Oregon Girls State is a program sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Oregon. Each summer a one week session is held for women to attend and learn about government and public systems and how to become actively involved in your community as a leader. This program gives young women an opportunity to experience state government in a hands-on, interactive environment.

The 2009 session of Oregon Girls State will be held June 14-20 on the Willamette University Campus in Salem.

Millers to celebrate 50th wedding anniversary

Joe and Bonna Rae Miller will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday, June 13. An open house buffet reception in their honor will be held from 3-7 p.m. at the Heppner Elks Club. No gifts, please.

Joe and Bonna Rae were married on June 27, 1959 at the Methodist Church in Lebanon. A reception was held at the bride's parent's home in Albany with the bride's great-grandparents attending.

The couple lived in Portland with Joe working for Hyster Company at R&D Technical Center. Bonna Rae worked at Mayflower Milk Co.

After they started a family, the couple lived in the Gresham area where Bonna Rae was a stay-at-home mom. They had three children, Reid, Ray and Ryan.

In 1977, the couple moved to Heppner and started a welding repair business, which became an excavating business that is now operated by their youngest son, Ryan.

Reid and his wife, Sheila (Seiler) Miller live in Lexington with their children Josie and Jarried.

Ray and his wife, Debbie (Marquardt) Miller live in Idaho Falls. They have three children: Roxy and her husband, Chris Strahm, and their children Parker and Pyper; Kyle and his wife, Bethanie; and Carl Miller.

Ryan and his wife, Sharon, and their son Tyler live in Heppner.
