CARD OF THANKS

To the community of Morrow County and most especially Heppner, Oregon, the family of Dorothy Jackson would like to thank everyone for all of the support, love and compassion that was provided and shown to our family during Dorothy's illness and passing. There is something to be said about small communities and the way that everyone comes together in a difficult times, not only go out of their way to help however they can, but to also truly mourn the passing of one of their family members, friends or acquaintances. Dorothy would have been so touched at the response of the community and that is not only inspiring but truly heartwarming.

Kindle for sharing their memories of Dorothy at the service, Gary & Geri Wright for being possibly the best neighbors ever, The Willow Creek Assisted Living Facility for their compassion and generosity, everyone who brought food, flowers, and cards in Dorothy's memory, The Heppner Garden Club and Rebekahs lodge who Dorothy so loved being a part of and all of her brothers, sisters, nephews, nieces and members of family who made her life special and full of lasting memories that will be treasured throughout the generations to come.

The Family of Dorothy Jackson
