I would like to take time to thank all the community members and all parents for donating their time, gifts, and money for the Class of 2009 graduation party. Also I would thank the staff of Heppner High and Heppner Elementary Schools for spending their valuable time helping us; again thank you. I had a great time at the party and I hope this tradition continues for the future graduates.
 Pastor Keith thank you so much for doing such a
