Proof that "it takes a community to complete a stage production" lies in our extensive list of individuals we want to thank as we look back at "Rails, Riches, and Rejection."
When we started our research, help came from the Heritage Museum files;

Margaret Flaherty, who ordered materials through the library; Florence Nolan, who shared a book full of Willow Creek railroad history; and Kathryn Hoskins, Betty Carlson and Gay Harshman, who shared family-railroad histories.

Autumn Morgan at the Gazette Times helped us get the word out by accepting our three articles about the coming event. And Erin Mills traveled from Hermiston for one of our practices, visited with actors and producers, took pictures, and wrote a great, lengthy article for the East Oregonian.

Staff at the Bank of Eastern Oregon, Community Bank, and Murray's sold tickets, as did Sandy at Heppner TV, where she also ran an advertisement, and Sheryll at the Cham-

Our stage backdrops were especially important because we had to move inside. Dave Fowler constructed the stage attachments for the backdrops that he, Jean Strange, Kolleen Chapa, and Joanna Patton created.

Daye Stone loaned us three HHS platforms for stages, and the HES custodians loaned and helped us load another platform. Erin Price, Ian Murray, Lane Wright, and Bob Harrison helped us load and unload those and 100 folding chairs. And Merle Cowett helped us with our move into the museum.

Tiffany McCurry created our program, and Trish and staff at BEO printed and folded them.

The audience of over one hundred showed wonderful support, and they were patiently understanding of our challenges with the staging changes dictated by the weather. And though Dino's Catering faced adverse conditions with power outages, diners seemed to realize that Dean and his staff were working hard to serve a delectable meal.

Our thirty-two actors made the play work. They offered great performances on stage, had great suggestions at practice, and provided much of their own costuming and props. Kolleen Chapa hustled to change sets and to help actors.

Bob Harrison, Dan Brosnan, Merlin and Claudia Hughes, Butch Laughlin, Frank and Cara Osmin, Joann Byrd, and Cliff Green stayed with us after the performance, to clean up, fold up, and return stages, chairs, and folding chairs that evening.

We thank you all! Long may such talent and such helpful attitudes reign in Heppner!

Sharon Harrison and Doris Brosnan

I have tried several times to thank the people of lone family and friends and I have not been very successful. I somehow have throat and eye problems. Thank you does not go far enough to convey my thoughts at this time. I am not going to mention names or times, there are too many, and if I left someone out it wouldn't be fair nor intentional. Lone has built a school district that resembles their community and the people that live in it. What a wonderful place to work!!! I appreciate all the help I have received in the classroom and on the courts and fields. The support and cooperation from all the staff at lone Schools has made these twenty-two years much easier. My family and I would like to express our gratitude for the wonderful send off. It was done in typical lone fashion and exceeded expectations. Thank all of you for the cards, words of thanks, and gifts. I know I have over used the words, but THANK YOU IONE FOR LETTING ME BE A PART OF YOUR SCHOOL!!!
