CARD OF THANKS

We blame a technological glitch for an omission in our "thank you's" of last week, and we correct that now.

"Rails, Riches, and Rejection" needed Dale Bates, as proven by his handling of the sound system at the performance. This play was more complicated than anything we had previously undertaken, in the number of characters in some scenes and in the number of stages, so we needed reliable remote microphones and someone who knew how to work them effectively. Dale handled the ordering for us, figured out a system that would work as we changed characters and microphones, and calmly managed to work with the changes we made that evening.

Dale was assisted, as he often is when handling the sound system at any given function, by Sheryll, who is great to work with on any project, as well as efficient and resourceful.

Thank you to two more very busy people who volunteered their time and talents to help us present our historical play.

Thank you to all of our family and friends for all of the food, cards, phone calls, flowers and best wishes following my recent surgery. We really appreciate everything.

Only in a small town do you find this much caring and thoughtfulness.

To the friends of Ed Dick:

The family of L.E. 'Ed' Dick Jr. wishes to express its appreciation to the friends of our father who honored his life and memory Saturday June 27 at the memorial service at the Methodist Church and reception at the Elks Lodge. Ed loved Heppner, Morrow County and America and you reciprocated that love. He and Rachel especially were dedicated to the Methodist Church and Heppner Elks Lodge and your exemplary service and ministry on his behalf blessed his family.

A few individuals must be publicly thanked because your ministry touched our hearts. Rick Drake you brought heavens glory to Heppner with your gift of music. Jonathan Enz you never met Ed Dick however you captured his legacy and ministered his testimony flawlessly. The ladies of the Elks Lodge, especially Sharon Lewis, Peggy Fishburn, Peggy Connor, Darlene Lovgren and Judy Buschke who served us, you blessed us with delicious food. To the precious caregivers at the Heppner Assisted Living facility, thank you George and staff for tenderly ministering to Dad. To Jesse and BJ and Tarena, Dad loved you and the family will never forget how devoted you all were to his care. The family of Ed Dick will never be able to properly thank all that ministered to our needs but one final amazing couple must be uplifted. Glen and Joyce Ward you have always been there for the Dick family and we thank God for you. You both spent yourselves on behalf Ed's memory and heritage. May God bless you both and everybody else that made his memorial service so wonderful.
