Bank of Eastern Oregon employees "apron-up" to assist the 4-H'ers during fair time. This is the third year BEO employees have volunteered Thursday of the fair to tie on the aprons to work the counter, fill the sauce bottles and flip pancakes or burgers so

4-H parents and members can show their animals or demonstrate. Under the leadership of Anita Orem, the bankers team up for a long day's work, taking shifts to keep the customers well fed. Bank of Eastern Oregon's employees "hope you take time to stop by the snack shack because they're at it again...celebrating the spirit of our home town."
