

Film festival highlight of M. C. Historical Society to be held

A film festival highlight of Morrow County Historical Society will be held at the annual meeting in Heppner on Sunday, October 4. A potluck meal will begin at 1:30 p.m., at the St. Patrick's Senior Center.

Guests with last name A-F are asked to bring a favorite side dish; G-N bring salad; O-Z bring dessert, or, guests can simply show up.

The business meeting and program will begin at 2:30 p.m. The film festival program will feature two short documentaries. The first will be "American Cowboys," a true story of two legendary cowboys, Jackson Sundown and George Fletcher, who broke the color barrier at the Pendleton Roundup. The second will be "The Logger's Daughter," the story of Maxville, a town built in Eastern Oregon in 1923 by a Missouri lumber company. The meeting will conclude at 4 p.m.

Both meeting and program are free. Copies of the 2009 Morrow County Chronicles will be available for sale for $5. Annual membership dues are due and can be paid at the meeting. Dues are $5.

Contact Louis Carlson, louis-bcarlson@centurytel.net, 541-676-5302; or Don Eppenbach depenba@msn.com, 541-922-3197 for annual meeting information.

Community concert to be held October 8

Come and help raise some money for Heppner's local St. Patrick's 2010 "Wee Bit O' Ireland" event. Put Thursday, October 8, from 7-9 p.m. on your calendar and plan on attending a great concert by Tiller's Folly and support Heppner's St. Patrick's event. The concert will be held in the Heppner High School gymnasium.

John and Ann Murray/Murray Drugs are sponsoring this event and all donations taken at the door (possibly some leprechaun's will be present) will go towards supporting Heppner's annual St. Patrick's event for 2010.

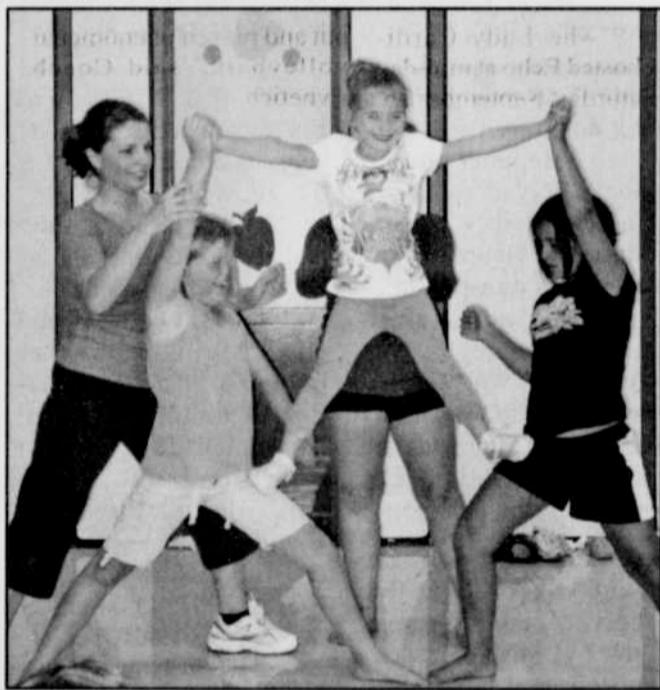

For more information call the Heppner Chamber office at 676-5536.

Kannard follows in mother's footsteps as Round-Up princess

Ashley Kannard

Ashley Kannard of Pendleton has always wanted to be a Round-Up princess and this year her dream came true. Kannard is now walking in her mother's footsteps as she was also a Round-Up princess in 1980.

A 2008 graduate of Pilot Rock High School, Kannard has finished her first year at Blue Mountain Community College and has been accepted into BMCC's dental assistant program.

Kannard is the daughter of Forrest Kannard of Pendleton and Shane and Cindy Dougherty Leasy of Pendleton. She is the granddaughter of Pat Dougherty of Heppner and the late Jerry Dougherty.

M. C. Health Department offers free flu vaccine

Morrow County Health Department is conducting a free flu shot clinic on October 6 from 3:30-7:30 p.m. or until the regular flu vaccine is gone. The clinic will be held in conjunction with the Riverside High School open house event in Boardman.

Last year Morrow County Health Department held a free flu shot clinic at Heppner High School. The flu clinic offered this fall at Riverside High School concludes a two year exercise plan to test mass dispensing procedures in north and south county locations with free flu vaccine provided by the Oregon Public Health Division for this purpose.

At the October 6 flu clinic the regular flu vaccine will be offered along with information about the H1N1 ("Swine") flu vaccine expected soon.

MCHD appreciates the cooperation of the Morrow County School District, Heppner High School (2008), Riverside High School (2009), and public health volunteers that have or will assist with the larger flu clinics.

For more information about the free flu shot clinic planned for October 6 or availability of regular flu vaccine or the H1N1 flu vaccine, call the Morrow County Health Department: 541-676-5421 (Heppner Office), Monday through Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m.; or 541-481-4200 (Boardman Office), Mondays and Tuesdays, 8-12:30 and 1-4:30 p.m.

Morrow County Court weekly meeting held

An Association of Oregon Counties meeting was scheduled for September 16. To allow the commissioners to attend this meeting, the Morrow County Court met on September 15 at 2 p.m. in Heppner with Judge Tallman and Commission Grieb in attendance. Following is a summary of the meeting provided by Leann Rea.

The court reviewed and approved accounts payable, payroll payables and retirement taxes for a total of $354,644.17 net.

The court conducted the following business:

-Reviewed and signed the following contracts: Morrow County Cost Allocation Plan proposed rates with the updated certificate of indirect costs and an indirect cost negotiation agreement re Cost Allocation Plan.

-Reviewed a letter from the Heppner City Council declaring excess property (Reservoir #4) which is located in Township 2S, Range 26, Section 35, Tax Lot 200. Greg Sweek, county assessor, reported that in 1974 there was an agreement to transfer ownership of this property from the county to the city. However, the transfer did not occur, therefore, the property still belongs to the county.

-The county also reviewed a request from the Heppner City Council to assist the city with a redevelopment plan for the property currently occupied by the May Street Apartments. The topic was discussed, but no action was taken.

-The 2008 Material Recovery Report (Recycling) from DEQ was reviewed. The county's 2008 goal was 20% however the report disclosed a recovery rate of 24.7%.

-Ms. Wolff provided the court with the status review of the 2008 Needs & Issues projects. As of September 14 requested payouts totaled $203,262.35 with $330,489.65 still to be claimed. If you were awarded funding through the Needs & Issues Process, please keep the court apprised if you will not be able to expend the funds before the end of the year. This request is not necessary if you have applied for funding of a multi-year project.

-Ms Wolff reported on the Local Government Personnel Institute (LGPI) conference that she recently attended.
