Obituaries

Michael Paul Crist

Michael Paul Crist, 67, died March 27, 2010, at Regency at The Park in College Place, Washington. A memorial service was held at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, April 6

Michael Paul Crist

2010, at the Walla Walla Alliance Church at 902 Howard Street, with Pastor Steve Morris officiating. A graveside inurnment service will be held at a later date at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery in Heppner.

One of two children, Michael was born August 27, 1942, in Boise, ID, to Winnfred and Edith Gatewood Crist. After high school, Michael worked at a variety of jobs, but a birth defect in his heart made working difficult. A few of the later things he did included serving as a police in Stanfield; working as an insurance agent in Moses Lake, WA; being a flagger at race tracks in the Hermiston area while he managed an apartment complex in Walla Walla; and taking care of the grounds at the Walla Walla Airport until his retirement in 1995.

Michael married the former Karen D. Noguez on May 23, 1993 in Touchet, WA. He enjoyed trap shooting at the Walla Walla Gun Club and was a 20-year member of B.P.O.E. Lodge #2146 in Milton-Freewater.

Survivors include: Michael's wife, Karen Crist, at their Walla Walla home; son Dana Crist of Milton-Freewater; and sister Cheryl Crist of Sterling, CO.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Salvation Army through Mountain View-Colonial DeWitt, 1551 Dalles Military Rd, Walla Walla, WA 99362.

Friends may write memories and sign the guestbook at www.mountainview-colonialdewitt.com.

Jay D. Hudson

Jay D. Hudson, 70, of Heppner died Monday, March 29, 2010, at Pioneer Memorial Hospital surrounded by his family. A graveside service with military honors was held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, April 3, at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery in Heppner. A reception and meal followed at the Heppner Elks Lodge.

Jay D. Hudson

He was born August 4, 1939 in Heppner, the son of Darl "Shorty" and Eva Shannon Hudson. Jay D. was raised and attended school in Heppner, graduating in 1957. He joined the United States Army in 1958 and after completing basic training at Fort Hood, Texas, he was stationed in Germany for two years. He was honorably discharged from the Army in 1960.

On October 4, 1961 he married Joan Moe in Heppner. The couple was blessed with three daughters. Mr. Hudson, a lumber grader, worked for Kinzua Corporation in Heppner for over 37 years before failing health forced him to retire in 1998. He was a longtime member of the Heppner Elks Lodge #358. Jay D. enjoyed playing cards, dancing, wood cutting, and spending time with his family and also watching his grandchildren play sports.

He is survived by: his wife of 48 years, Jo Hudson of Heppner; daughters, Sandi Patton of Heppner, Cindi Roberts of Pendleton, and Jacki Paulus of Kennewick, WA; grandchildren, Erik Patton, Jenni Smelser, Lyndi Patton, Austin Roberts, Tanner Roberts and Ashli Paullus; and great-granddaughter Kyras Smelser.

He was preceded in death by: his parents; brothers, Hubert Hudson and Gladwin Hudson; and sisters, Wilma McTimpeny and Donna Perkins.

Memorial contributions may be made to Pioneer Memorial Home Health, PO Box 9, Heppner, Oregon 97836 or to Heppner Elks 358 Foundation, PO Box 494, Heppner, Oregon 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in charge of arrangements.

Zelma M. McDaniel

Zelma M. McDaniel, 88, of Heppner died Thursday, April 1, 2010, at her home. Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, April 6, 2010, at the First Christian Church in Heppner. A graveside service followed at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, April 6, 2010, at the Lonerock Cemetery in Lonerock. A reception and potluck followed the graveside service at the Lonerock Community Center.

She was born January 3, 1922 at the family home near Lexington, the fourth of nine children born to Daniel and Iva Vincent Way. She was raised and attended school in Lexington where she graduated in the spring of 1940. She loved sports and was active in volleyball in her high school years.

On September 7, 1940 she married Dallas McDaniel in Weiser, ID. The couple lived in Lonerock where they owned the store and gas station, did ranching and operated the Post Office. The couple sold their holdings and moved to Pincton, WA, for a short time before settling in the Heppner area in 1951. They bought a ranch on Upper Rhea Creek in 1958 and continued to live out their lives on this ranch.

In 1967, Mrs. McDaniel was awarded a government contract for Rural Route Mail Delivery through the United States Post Office, retiring in 1989. She was an active longtime member of the First Christian Church in Heppner where she served as secretary and Sunday school teacher. She also enjoyed longtime memberships with the Rebekah Lodge and the Lexington

Grange, where she served as their chaplain.

She is survived by: her son, Melvin McDaniel; daughters, Iva Lou Zimmerman and Vicki Lynn McDaniel, all of Heppner; brothers, Marvin Way, Asa Way, and Joe Way; granddaughters, Amanda Davis, Iva Jean Zimmerman and Ashley Zimmerman; and one great-granddaughter, Kayden Riley.

She was preceded in death by: her husband, Dallas; sisters, June and Maxine; and brothers, Stanley, Claude, and Kenny.

Memorial contributions may be made to the National Kidney Foundation, 465 NE 181st Ave., Suite 257, Portland, OR 97230-6660.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in charge of arrangements.
