CARD OF THANKS

Thank you to the emergency services, both Heppner and Ione Ambulances and Fire Departments, for their quick response when our grandson and son, Buck Weilert, was injured in a tractor accident on March 24. Thanks also to Corey Peterson, who looked after our livestock and hay truck during our stay in Portland, AirLink and its pilot, Gary, for his quick response and Sheriff Matlack for his assistance. Everyone worked together as a team. Thanks also to friends in Portland and the staff at Emanuel Hospital where he was extremely well taken care of, the Ronald McDonald House, Gary and Virginia Reuter, who met me in Portland to guide me to the hospital. Thanks also for the concern, phone calls and prayers from friends, family and neighbors. Buck's father's quick response in administering first aid and AirLink are what saved him. Buck will regain full use of his arms. It truly was an Easter blessing.
