

Mustangs compete on home track

The Heppner track team hosted their first big meet on the newly renovated track on Friday, April 30. Twelve teams from around the region competed at the Mustang Invitational.

The Heppner girls' team came out on top with 129.5 total team points. The Heppner boys' team finished fourth (87.5 points). Erin Price was named High Point Girl Athlete of the meet. Stephen Larlee from South Wasco County was High Point Boy Athlete of the meet.

Price finished first in three events and ran a leg on the first place 4x400 meter relay team. Brynna Rust finished second in the 300 meter hurdles and long jump, third in the 100 meter hurdles and also ran a leg on the 4x400 relay. Alana Wilson ran a 1:06.62 in very windy conditions to win the 400 meters.

Jordan Hatfield finished just behind Larlee in the 300 meter hurdles. Hatfield was also first in the 300 meter hurdles and in the triple jump. Alex Pickles jumped a season best 19' 10" in the long jump and finished third.

The Mustangs host a four-way meet on Tuesday, May 4. They then travel to Boardman on May 8 for the Columbia River Invitational. The Blue Mountain Conference District Track meet is next Saturday in Stanfield.

The Heppner High School golf team held its 13th annual three person scramble on Sunday, April 25, at Willow Creek Golf Course. Ninety golfers enjoyed the sunshine and helped the Heppner High School golf program raise funds for equipment, tournament fees, and travel costs. "It was a great day for everyone," Coach Greg Grant stated. "It was nice to see our kids play so well and come away winners."

1st Gross Prize went to: Joe Pranger, Tayler Hodges, and James Billings.

2nd Gross: Tom Shear, Don Eaves, and Gary Hunt.

3rd Gross: Kevin Morgan, Donald Jameison, and Dave Riney.

1st Net: Emily Thompson, Donald Matthews, and Lindsay Cutsforth.

2nd Net: Daye Stone, Missy Cutsforth, Jeff Cutsforth, and Ross Cutsforth.

3rd Net: Lane Wright, Tim Wright, and Rod Wilson.

Rusty Britt won the 50/50 closest to the pin prize for half of $225 dollars.

CJRA Rodeo to be held in Heppner

Heppner is well represented at the Cayuse Junior Rodeo Association with the largest number of contestants from one community. The Cayuse Junior Rodeo Association will be hosting a Junior Rodeo in Heppner on June 6.

Watching a CJRA rodeo is a chance to view a part of our region's past while at the same time seeing its future shining brightly in the faces of the CJRA participants.

The Cayuse Junior Rodeo Association is non profit organization with the purpose of the perpetuation of the values associated with the sport of rodeo and its rich cultural traditions. The CJRA provides youth of the Inland Northwest the opportunity to compete against the best young athletes our region has to offer. The CJRA strives to promote the building of responsibility, cooperation and good sportsmanship in our contestants to help them develop into outgoing and productive individuals in their communities. The CJRA acknowledges two Heppner businesses Pettyjohns Farm & Building Supply in 2009, and Les Schwab Tire Center in 2010, whose sponsorship will help provide yearend awards.

If you are interested in joining the CJRA, participating in the rodeo, donating toward an award, or helping at the rodeo contact Kyle or Darcy Robinson.
