The Farm Foundation and Senior Center wish to thank everyone who helped make the Memorial Day Dinner a success. We had a great turnout and appreciate all who attended. Thanks to John and Nancy Gohnauer, Judy Buschke, Gladys Van Winkle, Carolyn Hall, Shirley Rugg, Ray Greenlaw, Rick Pettyjohn, Tom Wilson, Craig Scott, Darlene Lovgren, Frances Dion, Ginger Keithley, Kathy Turner, and Ellis McRoberts for helping to set up tables, serve food, wash dishes, and clean up afterwards. A special thank you to John and Nancy Gohnauer for cooking the wonderful meal, Judy Buschke for making pies and the sweet potatoes, Floss Watkins for the peach cobbler, Jan Denlinger for the pumpkin pies and coleslaw, Kathryn Hoskins for donating a turkey, and finally to Daisy Collins family for donating all of the blackberries for the pies. Also to those who stepped up and cleared tables when needed.

We also appreciate Heppner Family Foods and Willow Creek Diner for giving us a discount on the food purchases. The cash donations that were so generously given were sufficient to pay for the food purchases.

It is because of everyone working together in this community that makes it a great place to live. Thanks again and God willing we will do this again next year.

I would like to thank the many people that made this past track season successful.

A BIG thank you to the parents - especially Becky Cherry who organized the snacks and to the parents who donated water and snacks. To Mary Haguewood for ALL of her help. To the McElligotts, Rusts and Prices for providing needs at state.

To Mr. Fowler and his class for working on the shed, making the timing stand, and putting the Mustang on our tent. To Mr. Doherty, Mr. Fox and all that worked to finish the track shed. To Rod Wilson and Susan Hisler for helping to get the facilities ready for our big meet. To Dale Bates for providing the sound system at our meet. To all of the timers and measurers for braving the elements. To Dale Conklin for being the starter at our meets, and to Keith Price for clerking. To Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Smith-Griffith for the treats at districts and state.

We appreciate all of the support from parents and the community.

Thank you so very much!
