

Senior Companion Program available in Morrow County

The Senior Companion Program (SCP) is looking for seniors in Morrow County who would like to have a friendly visitor, someone to give a family caregiver a break by providing respite care, or helping with grocery shopping or ride to the doctor.

Senior Companion volunteers can give one or two hours per week to an individual, and can visit up to 12 persons on a long-term, scheduled basis.

To receive Senior Companion services, one must have a demonstrable need for a Senior Companion, i.e., recently released from Hospital or nursing home, have a disability, have a mental health concern, be lonely & isolated, or have a persistent health problem or severe illness. The goal is to help individuals remain independent in their current living situation.

All Senior Companion services are provided at no cost. The SCP Program is federally funded. All clients are referred to SCP through a volunteer site. The Senior Companion Program is sponsored locally by Community Counseling Solutions in Heppner.

For more information call 541-276-4474 or 800-541-5116.
