Food handler's class to be held

An environmental health specialist from Umatilla County will be teaching a food handler's class on Wednesday, July 28, from 5:30 pm to 7:30 p.m. at the Morrow County 4-H Annex in Heppner.

Those interested may plan to attend to just listen or to become certified for a food handler's card. Those planning to become certified should bring $10 for the certification fee.

For more information contact Pam or Claire at the 4-H office at 541-676-9642.

Vintage clothing show and tea planned in Echo

The Biennial Echo Vintage Clothing Show and Tea will be on Saturday, July 24, at 1 p.m. in the Echo City Hall Ballroom, 20 S. Bonanza, Echo. The Fashion Show and Tea are held every two years with profits going to local projects and maintenance of the vintage clothing collection.

Organizer Charlotte Berry says she has planned an elegant afternoon for area ladies that will feature fancy desserts, tiny sandwiches and other dainty foods served on glass plates with linen and silverware. No paper plates or plastic silverware are allowed at this tea. Cost is $10 per person, which can be paid at the door.

While guests dine, models will wander between the linen-covered tables so that the guests can see the clothing up close. Shoes, hats, capes and coats complete the ensembles. Clothing dates from the 1850s to 1980s.

Most of the clothing is from Echo's vintage clothing collection, which includes nearly 500 items plus several hundred accessories. Vintage clothing and accessories are on permanent display at Echo City Hall and library.

Berry organized the annual Fort Henrietta Days Vintage Clothing Show and has been expanding the collection and organizing the Fashion Show and Tea since Fort Henrietta Days ended in the late 1990s. The first Vintage Clothing Show and Tea was held in June 1995 in the city hall ballroom as a fund raiser for the renovation of the building.

Boardman to host new South Main Street ribbon cutting, courtesy of stimulus grant

The city of Boardman will be hosting a ribbon cutting ceremony for their newly completed roadway, curb, and sidewalk project on South Main Street. The project cost $288,000, with $94,000 coming from a Federal Stimulus grant administered through the Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT).

Working in conjunction with ODOT's overpass resurfacing project on Main Street, it took the city's contractor, Crestline Construction, just under a month to complete. Public Works Director Dave Winters said he was pleased with how quickly the project was completed and believes South Main Street is far safer than before.

Ceremonies begin at 11 a.m. on Friday, July 23, at the Sam Boardman Gazebo Park on S.E. Front Street. The community is invited to attend and, afterwards, stay and enjoy lunch at Judy's Chuckwagon.

Music in the Parks to feature Barbara Nelson

Barbara Nelson

The Music in the Parks series will continue on Monday, July 26, at Boardman Marina Park at 7 p.m. Musical guests will be Barbara Nelson & Dance Unlimited.

Music in the Parks is funded by the Morrow County Unified Recreation District and PGE. The event is sponsored by North Morrow Community Foundation and Irrigon Watermelon Festival and is presented each year by MP5+.

Barbara and her husband, Noels, live on a ranch in Pendleton. They have raised cattle, sheep and horses, but now just have horses. Barbara's musical career started after college when she sang in Alaska, Nevada and other states. Then she got married, raised a family and didn't sing much except local events.

She has sung at Pendleton Roundup events, at Ellensburg, Lewiston, The Dalles, Albuquerque, Ritzville and other gatherings. She will also be singing in Elko, Nevada, at the "National Cowboy Poetry Gathering" in January 2011. Barbara does a solo act with guitar and vocals.

"Back to my Boots and Saddle", the second album, was nominated for WMA Cowboy Swing Album of the Year 2008. "Roundup Ready", was nominated in 2009, also in the Western Swing category. Her newest album, "When I Was A Cowgirl," was released in May 2010, and is also Western Swing style. She has several albums available at this point.

She says she really enjoys singing time-honored songs, both Western and standards...and some new songs too. Rick Huff, WMA music critic, said, "Barbara has the experienced, seasoned voice of a Rosemary Clooney or Jo Stafford... uses complex guitar chords and gives a refreshing new life to these songs."

Barbara's fourth album, "Round-up Ready", was the #1 swing album on the Rope Burns charts for Jan-Feb 2010 and the song "Cow-cow Boogie" was the #3 single.

Barbara says she also likes to join other musicians and jam and just likes to sing and play guitar, whether in front of a small group or large. For bookings or cds contact her at the following: email-nnelson@wtechlink.us; website-barbaranelsonmusic.com; or phone-541-276-5372

2010 Harvest photos wanted

2010 marks the third year the Morrow County Wheat Growers have sponsored the Wheat League Cake Contest as a feature of the Morrow County Fair.

"Another harvest season is underway and with it an opportunity to take pictures of our way of life and share it with folks who don't live on a farm," said Shannon Rust. This year the Morrow County

Wheat League will sponsor a photo contest as well

People are invited to bring their mounted 4x6 or 5x7 photos to the Fair Office before the arts and crafts deadline to make sure their contribution is displayed.

First place will be awarded $30, second place, $20, and third place $10. For more information call Shannon Rust at 541-376-8202. "Have a great harvest."
