

Murray's Country Rose wine and micro beer tasting planned Thursday of fair week

Joe Lindsay

Murray's will be back again at the Fair on Thursday night from 6 to 9 p.m. with a new music line up. Joe Lindsay will be playing starting at 6 p.m. From 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Cat Martin and the Common Thread will be playing, followed by Taryn Cross at 7:30 p.m. to end the show.

Joe Lindsay is a popular "hometown boy" that audiences always welcome back enthusiastically.

Cat Martin and the Common Thread are based in Pendleton, Oregon, and include Heppnerite Luke Basile. The group plays timeless western/country classics. "Martin's deep sultry voice and love for cowboys roots music is a unique blend with Basile's blues/country swing," said a spokesperson. "Their music will entertain any sort of crowd".

Taryn Cross is a native of the Great Northwest and has been performing since she was seven years old. She now performs full-time and has thrilled audiences all over. She has shared the stage with such greats like Neal McCoy, Mark Chestnut, Jason Michael Carroll, Keith Anderson, Terry Clark and others. Taryn has performed at many venues including night clubs, dance halls, festivals, rodeos and corporate events.

Fair volunteers always needed

The Fair always needs volunteers to help the superintendents in each department. Anyone who would like to volunteer his or her time can call the superintendent or contact the Fair Office for information.

This year superintendents are needed for Booths and Clothing. "So get a friend and both of you come help out at the fair this year," invited Ren'ee Yocom, fair secretary.
