ODFW releases recreation report

Send ODFW your fishing report
 We'd love to hear about your recent fishing experience. Send us your own fishing report through ODFW Fishing Reports -- the information will be forwarded to the local biologist who may use it to update various ODFW resources such as the Weekly Recreation Report.

Take a second rod when fishing most lakes and reservoirs
 The new two-rod license ($17) allows licensed anglers to use two rods when fishing most lakes, pond and reservoirs, including Snake River impoundments above Hell's Canyon Dam (but it does exclude the Columbia River and its impoundments). You can purchase the new license on-line.

North East Zone FISHING
Weekend fishing opportunities

- Fishing for both rainbow and brook trout has been good on Grande Ronde Reservoir.
- Trout fishing remains good on Magone Lake but look for fish to be in deeper water.

ALDRICH PONDS: trout, The ponds are now accessible with a two mile hike. Weed growth is thick along the banks. A floating device is recommended to reach the best fishing.

GRANDE RONDE, WALLOWA, IMNAHA RIVERS AND TRIBUTARIES: trout, chinook salmon

River flows have receded and trout fishing is fair to good. The Imnaha River, from the mouth to Summit Creek Bridge, and the Wallowa River, from Minam State Park to the mouth of the Lostine River, opened for spring chinook fishing on May 22. Daily bag limit is two adipose fin-clipped adults and five adipose fin-clipped jacks. Anglers must stop fishing when they have kept two adipose fin-clipped adults. Check <http://www.dfw.state.or.us/news/2010/may/050610c.asp> for more details. Chinook fishing is fair. Anglers averaged eight hours per chinook landed on the Imnaha and 22 hours per chinook landed on the Wallowa last week. Chinook fisheries on the Wallowa and Imnaha Rivers will close at the end of the day on Sunday, July 25.

Check river flows

GRANDE RONDE RESERVOIR: rainbow and brook trout
 Fishing is good for both rainbow and brook trout. Fly fish using nymphs, or use a spinning rod with a rooster tail or spinners. Only artificial tackle allowed. Fish are ranging in size from 8-14 inches. HOLLIDAY PARK POND AND BULL PRAIRIE RESERVOIR: trout Excessive weed growth and warm temperatures have limited fishing success in both ponds. HONEYMOON AND TEPEE PONDS, SALT CREEK SUMMIT, Mc GRAW: trout These forest ponds have been stocked with legal-sized and trophy rainbow trout. Fishing should be good.

JOHN DAY RIVER: trout, smallmouth bass
 Fishing for smallmouth bass and channel catfish has been good. Warmer temperatures will bring a slowdown in the fishing. Spring chinook have arrived and will be holding in larger pools. They are illegal to keep and we do not allow fishing with lures in the upper North and Middle forks to prevent anglers from accidentally hooking them. Stream flow levels at Service Creek

JUBILEE LAKE: trout
 Jubilee Lake has been stocked and fishing should be good for rainbow trout.

KINNEY LAKE: trout
 Kinney Lake has been stocked with legal-sized and trophy rainbow trout. Fishing is good for both stocked and hold-over trout.

LONG CREEK POND,

CAVENDER POND: trout
 Fishing is poor, and will continue to be poor until cooler temperatures return in the fall.

LUGER SPRINGS POND: trout
 Rainbow trout will be restocked in Luger Pond, northwest of Palmer Junction.

MAGONE LAKE: trout
 Fishing is good for rainbow and brook trout to 14-inches. Warm temperatures will drive fish into deeper water.

Construction of a new boat launch area will begin in mid-August and is expected to last into the fall.

McKAY RESERVIOR: crappie, yellow perch, brown bullhead, trout
 Crappie fishing is good for 8 to 10 inch crappie with the evening bite being the best. Angling for yellow perch and brown bullhead continues to be good. The reservoir is currently 84 percent full.

MORGAN LAKE: trout, bullheads, bass
 The lake has been stocked with trophy and legal-sized trout. Worms or PowerBait with a sliding sinker works well.

OLIVE LAKE: trout, kokanee
 Olive is now accessible and has been stocked with rainbow. Kokanee will bite lures in the shallows for a few more weeks until hot weather drives them to extreme depths.

PEACH POND (Ladd Marsh): trout
 The pond has been stocked with trophy and legal-sized rainbow trout. Worms or PowerBait with a sliding sinker works well. Fishing has slowed some.

ROULET POND: trout
 The pond has been stocked with trophy and legal trout.

SEVENTH STREET POND: trout
 This pond has been stocked with 1,000 legal-sized rainbow trout.

STRAWBERRY AND SLIDE LAKES: trout
 Rainbow and brook trout are available in Strawberry. Slide Lake has brook trout only.

TROUT FARM POND: rainbow and brook trout
 Fishing is good. Construction will begin this summer to replace the picnic shelter. The shelter area will be closed during construction and will re-open this fall.

TWIN POND: trout
 The pond has been stocked and trout angling should be good.

UMATILLA FOREST PONDS: trout
 The Umatilla and Walla Walla ponds have all been stocked and should provide good angling for legal sized rainbow trout.

UMATILLA RIVER: trout
 Angling for rainbow trout is fair to good, Anglers are reminded of special regulations for the upper Umatilla River. Fishing is restricted to lures and artificial flies only and catch-and-release for trout.

WALLAWALLA RIVER: trout
 Fishing is good for rainbow trout.

WALLOWA LAKE: rainbow trout, kokanee
 Wallowa Lake has been stocked with legal and trophy sized rainbow trout and is providing good trout fishing. Kokanee fishing is fair to good and anglers are catching some large fish. Kokanee are beginning to move to deeper water as the lake warms. The state record for kokanee has been broken four times this spring at Wallowa Lake, most recently on June 13. The most recent record kokanee is a new world record.

WALLOWA WILDLIFE AREA, VICTOR, AND MARR PONDS: rainbow trout
 Wallowa Valley ponds have been stocked with legal-sized and trophy rainbow trout.

Fishing is good.

WESTON POND: trout
 Has been stocked and will provide fair fishing for rainbow trout.

WILLOW CREEK RESERVOIR: trout, crappie
 Crappie fishing is fair; trout angling continues to be good. Anglers are reminded of the catch and release only regulation for largemouth bass. A health advisory has been issued for Willow Creek Reservoir by Oregon Public Health, the advisory was prompted by high algae levels found in the lake. For health information, contact the Harmful Algae Bloom Surveillance program at 971-673-0400 or www.healthoregon.org/hab; also contact the Oregon Public Health toll-free information line at 1-877-290-6767.
