

Morrow County Court weekly meeting held

The Morrow County Court met on August 25 in Heppner with Judge Tallman and Commissioners Grieb and Rea in attendance. Following is a summary of the meeting provided by Leann Rea.

The court reviewed and approved the minutes from the August 18th meeting.

The court reviewed and approved the account payables in the net total amount of $178,712.96.

Road Report
Willow Creek

Road: The crew is continuing with filling the wider cracks from Blake Ranch Road to Cutsforth Park. As of Wednesday the 25th the only section remaining to be repaired is one lane from Black Mountain Lane down to the Blake Ranch Road and that should be completed by the end of the week.

Blake Ranch Road: The crew continues widening some of the roads and corners as needed. Currently, the crew is installing gabion baskets along one section of the road as well as continuing with brush removal along both sides of the road. Crusher: The crusher at the OHV pit continues to crush rock.

Contracts
Reviewed and approved Amendment #1 for Agreement #132026 with the State of Oregon acting through the Department of Human Services to reflect $1,224 more in the Tobacco Prevention & Education Program and $32,500 more for Phase #1 on the Healthy Communities Program. The court reviewed and approved a five year agreement between Morrow County and Brian Thompson (owner) and Marvin Fast (mineral rights owner) for a proposed rock pit in the Lurchford Canyon area.

Parole and Probation
Ms. Wolff on behalf of Parole and Probation Supervisor, Dan Robbins presented a request to the court to hire Deputy John Bowles to fill the position of the parole and probation officer. After some discussion the request was granted.

The court conducted the following business: Approved the payment of the fee to the Government Ethics Commission and the payment of membership fees to Community Renewable Energy Association. The court approved a purchasing pre-authorization for the Public Health Department for a new laptop computer in the amount of $1,667. Reviewed and signed the Ordinance for the Vacation of a Portion of County Road Number 971. The court reviewed and approved sending a letter to Rear Admiral Douglas T. Biesel regarding a memorandum of understanding regarding the possible placement of power transmission lines across the northern boundary of the Bombing Range.

Various correspondences and upcoming meeting notices were reviewed and discussed.

If you would like to be placed on the list to receive county minutes, please contact Karen Wolff at (541)676-5620.
