

Cardinals fall to Rangers

The lone Cardinals played the Dufur Rangers dead even in the first half of their conference game on Friday, October 2, but the second half was all Dufur as the Rangers romped 46-16. The Cardinals record fell to 1-4 on the season, 0-2 in the Big Sky League.

Homecoming brought out a big crowd for the Friday night game. After Dufur scored first, the home crowd roared when Zac Orem hit Micah Stillman with a 70 yard pass play. Orem ran in the point after and the score was 8-8 at the end of the first quarter. Dufur struck again in the second before the Cardinals drove the length of the field. Zac Orem punched in from two yards out for the score and then hit Tanner Rietmann with a pass for the point after. Both teams had chances and the Cards were moving towards another score late in the first half before running out of time. The score stood at 16-16 at the half.

Dufur scored in the third quarter to go up 24-16 but it was the 20 Ranger points in the fourth quarter with no answer from lone that gave Dufur the big win.

The finals Ladies Play Day of the season was held on Tuesday, September 28, at the Willow Creek Country Club.

The first place team included Virginia Grant, Karen Thompson, and Lorene Montgomery with a score of 30.

Second place was a tie between the teams of Nancy Prophet, Pat Dougherty, and Jackie Allstott and Pat Edmundson, Jan Paustian, Bernice Lott,

Lady Cardinals take wins over Dufur and Helix

The lone Lady Cardinals took care of two conference foes during Big Sky Volleyball play last week, efficiently dispatching Dufur on Friday and dismantling a rebuilding Helix team on Saturday. Both games were played in Ione.

Dufur came to town on October 1, the Friday of a fun-filled but distracting and exhausting Homecoming week. The Cardinals and Rangers have not met this season but Dufur sported a good record and looks to be the top team in the Big Sky West. Ione came out gunning in this important match running out to a 7-1 lead before Dufur got it together. Behind Joanna Patton's four kills and three blocks in the match and Siren Endersen's two kills and two aces, the Rangers never got closer than two points as the Cards won game one 25-16.

Dufur fought back in game two and jumped out to a 4-1 lead but two missed serves, a rotation error and a passing error helped put the Cardinals right back into the thick of things. The game stayed tight all the way to an 18-18 tie before teamwork and aggressive net play put Ione out front. The Lady Cards built a 24-20 lead but Dufur refused to go away, cutting that lead to 24-23 before Beth Morter smacked her seventh kill of the game to the floor for the winning point, 25-23.

With the momentum firmly behind them, the Cardinals smelled a three game sweep. The game was tied at 6-6 before Ione used scrappy, aggressive team play to stretch out and Luvilla Sonstegard with a score of 33.

Long drive: Nancy Prophet, Virginia Grant, and Laura Rogers.

After the scramble a lunch was hosted by ladies' board and the fall meeting was held. New board members for 2011 are: Pat Edmundson, president; Pat Dougherty, vice-president; Corol Mitchell, secretary/treasurer; Bernice Lott, board member; and Jackie Allstott, board member.

the lead for a convincing 25-16 win.

The lone ladies continued to serve well led by Shadow Kendrick (17-17), Joanna Patton (10-10) and Siren Endersen (10-10.) Beth Morter had 11 kills and four blocks in the match.

"This was one of our best hustle games all year," said Coach Dawn Eynetich. "After a long week of Homecoming activities, I was pleased to see the girls play really strong."

After the draining effort against Dufur on Friday and a night of dancing the night away at the homecoming dance, the Lady Cardinals had to shake off sluggishness when they faced Helix the next day. Despite the circumstances, the Cards took the match easily 25-10, 25-12, 25-15. Shadow Kendrick, Mary Rietmann and Shadow Kendrick served 100% in the game as the Cardinals continued to show consistency from the service line. Joanna Patton had five kills and two blocks in the match while Beth Morter had seven blocks and four kills.

"The girls were extremely tired but they did what they had to do," said Coach Eynetich. She also noted that despite their fatigue, she saw some nice hustle plays once again. The lone team has a crucial match on the schedule this week when they will meet Condon/Wheeler in Ione on Thursday afternoon at 4:30 p.m. The team travels to Stanfield on Saturday.
