CARD OF THANKS

I was completely surprised and overwhelmed to be honored by the Heppner Chamber of Commerce as "Woman of the Year". There are so many wonderful volunteers who give their heart & soul to bettering our community that I really can't believe that I was the chosen one for 2010.

I was in so much shock that I missed thanking some very special people in my life like my entire family and my friends who make my life worth living. I also appreciate so much having a place of employment that has allowed me to drop everything at work in a moments notice so that I can attend local events to photograph our community family at their best. Thank you to everyone at Heppner High & Heppner Elementary schools for calling me when you have special occasions that you know I wouldn't want to miss and a special thank you to Sheryll & Dale Bates and Kim Cutsforth for everything you do for me although I will get even someday - someday - somehow! I love you all. It's very humbling to be added to the list of past honored community members along with Brett Harrison, Ken Grieb, Beth Dickenson, Larry Lindsay and The Stable of Youth. With all my heart I thank you again.

I wish to thank the Heppner Chamber of Commerce, the community of Heppner, and all who nominated and supported me as the recipient of the Youth of the Year Award.

I am honored and proud to contribute to the city of Heppner and it's citizens in any small way I can. Congratulations to all of my fellow winners.
 Sincerely, Brett Harrison
