Obituaries

Lionel Frank Huston

East Portland resident Lionel Frank Huston passed away on January 31, 2011. He was 83. No services will be held.

Lionel was born January 26, 1928 in Liberty Bond, Washington to Orlin and Elsie (Lucas) Huston. He served in the United States Air Force from 1946 to 1949. After his service in the military, Lionel moved to Heppner, Oregon. He moved to Portland in 1957 and went to work for United Grocers. After working for United Grocers for 20 years, Lionel held various jobs including painting and working for Blue Flame Oil Company. He retired in 1993 and moved to Irigoin, Oregon. In 2005, he moved to Portland where he resided until his passing.

Lionel was an avid hunter and fisherman. He was a long time member of the North American Hunting Club. He was very much an outdoorsman and a very active individual. He also enjoyed clamming, waterskiing and motorcycling. Lionel was a member of

Gold Prospectors Association of America and went on several gold hunting trips throughout Oregon and Alaska.

Lionel was preceded in death by his sister, Maxine Cox. He is survived by: his daughter, Pamela McCall and her husband, Marion of Vancouver, WA; sister, Bernice Cross of Portland; brother, Omer Huston of Irigoin; grandson, David McCall; great-grandchildren, Morganne, Jady, Colton, and Vienna; and seven nieces and nephews.

Lionel's family appreciates Bernice Cross, Don Cross, and Teri Cross for all of their help and support during the last few weeks of Lionel's life.

Memorial contributions may be sent to the American Lung Association. An online obituary for Lionel Huston with a place for family members and friends to leave messages can be viewed at www.bate-mancarrollfunerals.com.

Arrangements are under the direction of Bateman Carroll Funeral Home.
