DEPUTY WINS AWARD

parolees in Morrow County had to travel to Hermiston or Pendleton to take part in probation programs. According to Sheriff Matlack, that opened the program to failure.

"Because some of these people could not drive, they said they were not able to complete their programs," stated Matlack. "Now they can walk to the treatment program at Community Counseling Solutions."

Matlack also stated that the funding for the parole and probations program now comes straight to Morrow County. The more people who are in the program, the more money is returned to Morrow County.

The Morrow County program started with 49 people and now averages around 90. Bowles said the numbers keep the department busy, but he is excited about the chance to help people right here instead of making them travel to meet probation requirements.

"You get a lot better chance to work with people and hold them accountable," said Bowles. "Our main goal is to help them comply with their probation and create positive change in their lives."

6th annual youth fishing derby scheduled

Morrow County's 6th Annual Youth Fishing Derby will take place Saturday, May 21 at Cutsforth Park from 8:30 a.m. until 11 a.m.

The fishing derby is a free event for children up to age 14. Fishers will be divided into three age groups, with prizes for each group.

Cutsforth Park is located at 58430 Willow Creek Road, about 22 miles south of Heppner on the Blue Mountain Scenic Byway. Morrow County Parks partners with the Oregon

Department of Fish and Wildlife (ODFW), Elks Lodge 358, Pettyjohn's Farm and Building Supply, Community Bank, Bank of Eastern Oregon and many other volunteers to help provide a fun day of fishing for kids, create lasting memories and encourage their interest in the great outdoors.

Anyone interested in volunteering or donating to this event can contact Betty Gray at Morrow County Parks, 541-989-8214, or e-mail bgray@co.morrow.or.us.
