Our 125th Valby Anniversary was a memorable and very wonderful occasion. Our Lord sent us a very cloud free and wind free day. One hundred and sixty former pastors, friends and relatives attended. Special thanks to Lea Mathieu, our pastor who conducted the church service and to those who: Prepared food for the delightful Smorgasbord, Developed the Valby cook book with collected recipes, Created the cemetery floral extravaganza, To Bob and Aloha Despain for their gift of 160 hand rubbed, wooden pocket crosses Heppner Family Foods for their special involvement with the flowers bouquets, Those who sent invitations, provided the 125th banner, cleaned and prepared the facilities for the occasion,

For those involved in the creation of an actual running water restroom, Served as receptionist and welcomed our guests, And a special thanks to every helping hand.
God Bless our Church, Community and Nation,
Louis Carlson President, Valby Lutheran Church
