

Food booths offer lots to eat at the fair

Along with the 4-H Snack Shack, which provides a big variety of tasty snacks and meals for fair goers each year, Ron and Judy Peters from Yureka, California will be back at an outside booth this year with over 20 flavors of shaved Ice to choose from. Everyone can beat the heat with a cool treat.

Murray's Drug will serve espresso bar drinks, both hot and cold. And don't forget the Ice Cream Social

2010 food vendors

sponsored by Columbia River Processing, Inc., of Boardman. Fair Board members and Morrow County Fair Ambassadors will be serving.

The United Methodist Church/Sweet Productions will also offer deli sandwiches with chips, lemonade, iced tea and desserts at the inside kitchen.

"We hope to see you at the Fair where you can get just about any kind of food," commented a fair spokesperson.

4-H Volunteer Leaders Are Awesome!

2010 Morrow County Fair participants

The 4-H program relies on volunteer adult leaders to organize and lead groups of 4-H members. Research shows that youth who have a non-parental adult as a friend, teacher, and mentor do better than youth without such an adult presence. As a 4-H leader and educator, you are in a position of great influence. You can channel members' curiosity, inspire new interests, and continually offer new opportunities for them to grow and develop into happy and productive adults. You can be the key to a young person's success!

A recent study showed that most 4-H leaders volunteer because they are interested in making a difference in the lives of young people. While some 4-H leaders have expertise in a particular content area, such as animal science, it is not a requirement. The 4-H program is always looking for quality, committed adult volunteers. If you are interested in exploring becoming a 4-H volunteer, please call or visit the Extension office.

Studies show that each 4-H volunteer gives an average of 200 hours of time annually to the 4-H Youth Development program. Looking at Oregon's 6,000 volunteers, that means 1,200,000 hours are given annually to help youth develop skills for a lifetime. Nationally, the current estimated dollar value of volunteer time is about $20 per hour! Not only are 4-H volunteer leaders awesome, but the value of their time to Oregon 4-H is more than $20 million annually.
