

SMITH- Continued from page ONE

Jobs and Business" by Associated Oregon Industries. He also garnished the endorsements of the National Rifle Association (NRA), Oregon Farm Bureau, Oregon Council of Police Associations, Oregon Right to Life, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), Oregon State Council for Retired Citizens and the Oregon Health Care Association. Rep. Smith has also received financial support from Oregonians In Action, Oregon Wheat PAC and many more.

"Rural Oregon has been hit hard during this long economic downturn," Rep. Smith said. "I'm running for re-election because our citizens need an experienced lawmaker who works effectively with urban legislators from both parties. I'll continue to be a strong advocate for our district and I'll ensure that Eastern Oregon won't be left behind in 2013."

Rep. Smith will run in the new House District 57, which was reconfigured due to legislative redistricting. The new district will continue to include Morrow County and portions of Northern Umatilla County, but will now extend west to include communities in Gilliam and Sherman Counties and portions of Wasco County.

"While I'll miss many of my former constituents in Northeastern Oregon, I look forward to meeting citizens in the new House District 57 and sharing my vision for the future," Rep. Smith said. "While the district has changed, our region's needs and priorities have not. I look forward to the campaign and discussing my solutions for improving our economy."

In addition to serving as state representative, Rep. Smith is a small business owner. His company focuses on economic and business development in Eastern Oregon. Rep. Smith, his wife, Sherri, and their five children reside in Heppner.

Bob and Sharon Harrison to celebrate 50th anniversary

Robert Harrison and Sharon Keithley were joined in marriage on September 16, 1961. In the ensuing 50 years four kids blessed the union, along with countless dogs, cats, pigs, chickens, rabbits, horses, cattle, one wheat ranch and several years in the banking industry. As years passed, the children grew and soon four more spouses joined the family. In the years that followed six grandchildren brought more joyful blessings and love with them.

The recent years have brought full time retired life of freedom, travel, enjoyment of each other's company and many pursuits of adventure.

In lieu of a party a family vacation is planned.
