

Traveling trivia show returns to Heppner Upcoming events at Hope, All Saints

By Doris Brosnan

"From which side is a cow milked by hand—the cow's left or the cow's right?"

Readers who think they know the answer to that question should think about signing up to participate in Mr. Bill's Traveling Trivia Show, which is scheduled to return to Heppner next month.

The nonprofit Heppner Day Care will again sponsor the fun and entertaining event as a fundraiser for the nonprofit organization. The show will be held on November 19 at 7 p.m. at the Heppner Elks Lodge.

Maybe the following question will encourage some readers to start gathering teams for what has become an annual challenge for trivia buffs, a social outing for fun-lovers, an opportunity to playfully goad other teams and a stimulating experience for everyone:

"On Disney's Phineas and Ferb show, who does Candice have a crush on?"

Entry forms are available at Community Bank. Though teams may enter on the evening of the show, early entries are encouraged. A table will be reserved with the team name for every early entry. Entering early will help start the show on time and prevent delays at the door.

Teams can have from one to six members. The entry fee for each team is $150. That entry fee breaks down to just $25 per person on a team of the allowed and suggested six members. Though individual team members often pay their own entry fees, another suggestion is to recruit a sponsor for one's team.

The members of the three top-scoring teams at Mr. Bill's will receive prizes, as well as bragging rights. Every participant will have an equal opportunity to win a door prize at some point in the evening. The day care will also be raffling some baskets with interesting contents.

One player who admits to having "absolutely NO ability to retain trivia" encourages everyone to join in what she says is "one of the most fun-filled evenings and funniest evenings on the calendar!"

Readers need not look far to find someone who has played at Mr. Bill's, since over 130 people played last year. A Day Care board member reports that no one who has ever participated has ever told her that the evening was not great.

"It really is fun and simple," this board member says. "Listen to the set of questions, discuss with your team, write down your answers, listen to the correct answers, do a high-five (because you were right, of course!), repeat."

This could be the year that any returning team knocks one of the perennial top teams out of the running. This could be the year that a "newbie" team throws down the gauntlet and succeeds in taking over the spotlight at the top. The outcome is never a foregone conclusion, so the "Quarter and a Dime," the "Brainiacs," the "M.A.N. Team," the "SemiSober," and other top teams will be nervously working to keep others, such as (for instance) "Legends," out of the top places.

This fundraiser is critical to the operation of Heppner Day Care, which no longer receives financial support from some previous sources, so if readers think they know, "Whose last name is DeFazio—Laverne or Shirley?", now is the time to recruit some friends for a fun way to support this worthy service to Heppner.

Mr. Bill's questions run the gamut of topics, and sample questions and answers can be found on his web site: <http://www.mrbillstrivia.com>.

Upcoming events at Hope, All Saints

This Sunday, October 30, the Shared Ministry of Hope Lutheran Church and All Saints Episcopal Church will worship at Hope, on the corner of Alfalfa and Cows in Heppner. Worship will begin at 10 a.m.

Many Protestant churches observe the last Sunday in October as Reformation Sunday, but this is especially true of the 70 million Lutherans worldwide who take their name from Martin Luther, a German monk who became one of the chief reformers of the church. In recognition of the Lutheran Church's German roots, a potluck featuring German food will follow the service about 11:30 a.m. Everyone is welcome. Donations will be accepted for Roy Proctor's medical expenses, to be matched by Thrivent Financial for Lutherans.

The first Sunday in November is observed every year as All Saints Sunday. On Sunday, November 6, the Shared Ministry's typical pattern of first Sunday worship at Hope will be adjusted; the celebration of All Saints Day will be held at All Saints Episcopal Church, beginning at 10 a.m. Loved ones who have died in the faith will be remembered during this service. To add names to the list of those who are being remembered, please contact the church office at 676-9970.

The arrival of November also means it's time for the next session of First Fridays Friends of Jesus, to be held at All Saints, on corner of Church and Gale, on Friday, November 4 from 8 a.m. to noon. All children ages 4 through 12 are welcome. Those who attend in November are asked to bring a can of food. The cans will be added to the food baskets being prepared by the Shared Ministry for distribution to needy families in the community on November 20. More information about the food distribution project will follow.

A story in last week's Gazette-Times regarding the Ione American Legion Auxiliary fall bazaar incorrectly stated that the setup time on Friday, November 18 was 4-5 p.m. The correct time is 4-8 p.m.
