

The Official Newspaper of the City of Heppner and the County of Morrow

Heppner
GAZETTE-TIMES
U.S.P.S. 240-420

Morrow County's Home-Owned Weekly Newspaper
Published weekly by Sykes Publishing, LLC and entered as periodical matter at the Post Office at Heppner, Oregon under the Act of March 3, 1879. Periodical postage paid at Heppner, Oregon. Office at 188 W. Willow Street. Telephone (541) 676-9228. Fax (541) 676-9211. E-mail: editor@rapidsolve.net or david@rapidsolve.net. Web site: www.heppner.net. Postmaster send address changes to the Heppner Gazette-Times, P.O. Box 337, Heppner, Oregon 97836. Subscriptions: $27 in Morrow County; $21 senior rate (in Morrow County only; 62 years or older); $33 elsewhere; $27 student subscriptions.

David Sykes Publisher
Andrea Di Salvo Editor

All News and Advertising Deadline is Monday at 5 p.m.

For Advertising: advertising deadline is Monday at 5 p.m. Cost for a display ad is $5 per column inch. Cost for classified ad is 50¢ per word. Cost for Card of Thanks is $10 up to 100 words. Cost for a classified display ad is $5.75 per column inch.

For Public/Legal Notices: public/legal notices deadline is Monday at 5 p.m. Dates for publication must be specified. Affidavits must be required at the time of submission. Affidavits require three weeks to process after last date of publication (a sooner return date must be specified if required).

For Obituaries: Obituaries are published in the Heppner GT at no charge and are edited to meet news guidelines. Families wishing to include information not included in the guidelines or who wish to have the obituary written in a certain way must purchase advertising space for the obituary.

For Letters to the Editor: Letters to the Editor MUST be signed by the author. The Heppner GT will not publish unsigned letters. All letters MUST include the author's address and phone number for use by the GT office. The GT reserves the right to edit letters. The GT is not responsible for accuracy of statements made in letters. Any letters expressing thanks will be placed in the classifieds under "Card of Thanks" at a cost of $10.

Obituaries

Maxine E. Jenkins

Maxine E. Jenkins, 85, formerly of Heppner, died Monday, October 31, 2011 at Life Care Center of Kennewick. A graveside service was held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, November 5 at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

She was born April 15, 1926 in Heppner, the daughter of William and Myrtle Wilkerson Smith. She was raised and attended school in Heppner.

At an early age, she met and married Jessie Dale "Jack" Warren. To this marriage was born a son, Wade Warren, in 1944 and a daughter, Wilma Warren, in 1947. Jack preceded her in death. She later married Ernest Jenkins; he preceded her in death in 1985. She relocated to Milwaukie and then to the Tri-Cities.

The family shared a good life and considered Maxine to be "the best mom." She was happy and funny, enjoyed cooking, and was noted for her delicious meatloaf. She collected figurines of cats. She enjoyed dancing, embroidering and watching her soap operas, The Days of Our Lives and The Young and Restless. She also liked watching Chuck Norris, whom she got to meet in person. Mostly, she loved her family and friends, who brightened up her life.

She is survived by: her daughter; Wilma Warren of Yakima, WA; a sister, Hazel Easter; and numerous grandchildren. Besides her husbands, she was preceded in death by: a brother, John Smith; and sisters, Adine Stone and Alberta Wilson.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, 1650 NW Naito Parkway, Suit 190, Portland, OR 97209.

Sweeney Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Marilyn Froman

Marilyn Baker Froman, 87, died Sunday morning, November 6, 2011 in her room in the Memory Care Unit at Summit Springs Village in Condon with daughter Joanne at her side. The funeral will be Saturday, November 12 at 11 a.m. at the United Church of Christ in Condon, followed by an interment service at the Condon Cemetery. A luncheon will follow at the St. John Parish Hall.

Born in Wellsville, NY on November 28, 1923 to Ralph and Margaret Baker, she was raised in Maywood, IL. She attended Carleton College in Northfield, MN for two years before transferring to Iowa State College (now University) in Ames, IA, from which she graduated with a bachelor of science in home economics. She spent an additional term there earning her teaching certificate, after which she taught school in Oswego, IL for two years.

When relatives, the Tom Applebee family, then of Condon, became ill, she traveled to the west coast to help care for them. She was met at the Salem airport by Norman Froman. Marilyn then spent a year teaching in Condon before marrying Norman in 1949 and moving to the farmhouse east of Condon, where they raised wheat and three children. They moved to the Bennett duplex near the grade school in Condon after Norman retired from farming, and to Summit Springs Village shortly after it opened.

Marilyn Froman was active in her church, women's fellowship and Sunday School; enjoyed her participation in the Condon Reading Club, participated in the Grange's home economics club and took part in several live shows staged by Co-Arts and the Liberty Players. She helped her children in Cub Scouts, Brownies, 4-H and PTA. She was very organized and intensely committed, and served as an officer in just about every organization to which she belonged.

She was an accomplished poet and biographer, authoring Annie's Story, which chronicles the life of the late Annie Boyer. She was a one-time reporter for the Condon Globe-Times, now The Times-Journal.

She enjoyed cooking, square and round dancing, live theater—especially the Ashland Shakespearean Festival—travel, particularly to Cultus Lake Resort and Hawaii, art and music. Mostly she enjoyed the time she was able to spend visiting with friends and family.

She was preceded in death by: her parents; her younger brother, Bill, who was killed in World War II.

She is survived by: her husband of 62 years, Norman; her sister, Barbara Fulton of Katy, TX; her son, Bill of Vancouver, WA; daughters, Joanne Wickham of Portland and Barbara Sorrenson of Exeland, WI; son-in-law, Randy Anderson of Condon; six grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and many nieces, nephews and friends whom she considered family.

The family requests that remembrances on Marilyn's behalf be sent to Summit Springs Village, PO Box 687, Condon, OR 97823, and/or to the United Church of Christ, PO Box 223, Condon, OR 97823.

Sweeney Mortuary of Condon is in charge of arrangements.

Rust, Carnine to be married

Randy Carnine and Brooke Rust

Brooke Nicole Rust of Echo and Randy Mychael Carnine of Condon are announcing their engagement.

Brooke is the daughter of Tim and Shannon Rust of Echo and granddaughter of Frank and LaVonne Mader, also of Echo.

Randy is the son of Stan and Terri Carnine of Condon and grandson of Virginia Carnine and Dorothy Shaffer, also both of Condon.

Brooke is a 2004 graduate of Heppner High School. She earned a bachelor's degree in English from the University of Idaho in 2008. She works as an editorial assistant for USDA-Natural Resource Conservation Services in Heppner.

Randy graduated in 2002 from Condon High School. He is a site quality control supervisor for Silvey Enterprise, a wind turbine site contractor based in Clackamas, and travels to turbine-erecting sites throughout the region. He lives in Condon when he is not traveling.

The couple will exchange wedding vows January 7, 2012 in Clarkston, WA.

Rebekah members named grand officers

Three Holly Rebekah Lodge members attended the state convention in North Bend recently, where they were named grand officers of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon. Marlene Gray is grand marshal, LaRae Kindle is grand chaplain and Virginia Peck is grand flag bearer. Marlene is also grand matriarch of the Ladies Encampment Auxiliary.

In other business, the lodge hosted its first annual harvest craft bazaar in October. The proceeds were used to start a scholarship to be given to a south Morrow County graduating senior.

This month, members voted to donate money to the Darrin Skaggs medical fund and the Community Bank's change for charity project.

Lodge members continue to host monthly card parties and join the Lexington Odd Fellows in the weekly bingo games.

Adam Charles Pointer

Adam Charles Pointer passed away suddenly on Tuesday, November 1, 2011 at the age of 28.

A native of Oregon, Adam started life in Redmond, OR on July 17, 1983.

Adam moved with his family to Astoria, OR in 1989. The family moved to Sublimity, OR in 1992. Adam attended Sublimity School and Regis High School in Stayton, OR. He loved Texas, where he lived off and on for the past five years. He worked in the oil and gas fields, where he endeared himself to his employers and co-workers. Adam was known for his strong work ethic and capable nature.

Adam's death saddened everyone. He will be lovingly remembered by his family, friends and all who knew him for his charm, humor, smile and those twinkling blue eyes.

Adam is preceded in death by: grandparents, Doc and Maxine Heuschkel, and Donald and Nonie Pointer. He is survived by: parents, Charlie and Stevie Pointer of Sublimity; brother, Trace Morris of San Diego, CA; sister, Chelsea Pointer of Orange County, CA; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

A celebration of Adam's life will be held November 19 at 2 p.m. at Stayton Christian Church, 189 East Washington Street, Stayton, OR 97383. A reception will follow.

Adam had a deep love for animals, so the family asks that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made in Adam's memory to the Oregon Humane Society, PO Box 11364, Portland, OR 97211-0364, (503) 285-7722, www.oregonhumane.org.

Adam Charles Pointer

Carnival fun at HES

Heppner Elementary School will hold its annual Parent-Teacher Club carnival Thursday, November 10.

The event begins at 5:30 p.m. with dinner of hot dogs, baked potatoes and homemade chili with drink and dessert. Once filled up on delicious food, participants are invited to continue the fun with games in the school gym from 6:00-7:30 p.m.

A variety of games has been planned, including Wii games, pop toss, a giant bouncy castle, duck scoop, junk food walk, basketball shoot, mini golf, bingo, plinko, Nerf ball toss and, of course, the fish pond for the little ones. For those who didn't get enough to eat at dinner, there are homemade caramel apples and cupcakes on a stick to satisfy that sweet tooth.

This year, for the second time, there will also be a raffle at the end of the night. Prizes include a sled, scooter, U of O Pillow Pet, games, homemade pillow cases and much more.

This annual fundraiser for the HES Parent-Teacher Club supports a variety of activities for the students and staff of Heppner Elementary.

Thanksgiving dinner planned

A community Thanksgiving dinner will be held Thanksgiving Day, November 24, at 1 p.m. at All Saints Episcopal Church in Heppner. Everyone is invited to this free dinner, which is hosted by Elohim Covenant Church. For more information, call Catherine at 541-626-3262 or the church office at 541-676-5471.

VETERANS,
We appreciate your service and your commitment to protecting the freedom of our country
Willow Creek Tea Party Patriots

Death Notices

George J. Farley—George J. Farley, 66, a resident of Pendleton and former resident of Condon, died Wednesday, November 2, 2011 in a Walla Walla hospital. He was born September 8, 1945. At his request, no services will be held. Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements.

Charles E. Rouse—Charles E. Rouse, 78, passed away at his home in Gold Beach, OR on October 4, 2011. Mr. Rouse was born March 10, 1933 in Nome, AK. A memorial mass was held October 14 at noon at St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church in Gold Beach. Redwood Memorial Chapel was in charge of arrangements.

Children celebrate Feast of All Saints

The children of St. Patrick's Parish in Heppner celebrated All Saints' Day this year with a children's Mass. Grades pre-school through sixth began the Mass by singing "When the Saints Go Marching In" and carrying in banners of the saints.

Four children dressed up as Saint Juan Diego, Saint Therese of Lisieux, Saint Maximilian Kolbe and Saint Padre Pio, and read to the congregation about their lives. Saint Padre Pio even displayed the wounds of Jesus Christ.

All of the students participated in the Mass. After Communion, the little ones sang "This Little Light of Mine" and "Jesus Loves Me."

"Everyone enjoyed the special Mass and the children learned not only about the saints but also about the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass," said Father Gerry Condon.

Christmas Is... December 4?

The annual "Christmas Is" community concert will take place December 4 at the United Methodist Church in Heppner. Performances will be at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. Tickets are available now. The cost is $10 for adults and $5 children 12 and under. Tickets can be purchased at the Methodist parsonage or by calling Doreen Enz at 541-676-9224.

If you or someone you know has a gambling problem, help is available and that help is FREE of charge.
If YOU have a family member who suffers from gambling addiction, YOU can also receive FREE treatment even if the gambler is not receiving treatment.
If you are a resident of Morrow County and you wish to take advantage of the services above or desire more information, Please call any of the following numbers to set up a LOCAL appointment or just to talk:
Bobby Harris @ 541-676-9925 or 541-256-0175
Community Counseling Solutions (CCS) @ 541-676-9161
OR 1-877-695-4648 (1-888-MYLIMIT)

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 17TH
RENOVATION APPRECIATION NIGHT
The lodge will be serving a steak meal honoring all the volunteers that made the recent renovations possible in our beautiful facility.
All members and guests are invited to attend to show their appreciation. If you helped with these renovations please plan on attending so we can recognize your contribution to our Lodge!
HEPPNER ELKS 358
676-9181 "Where Friends Meet" 142 North Main