CARD OF THANKS

The family of Loa McElligott would like to extend our heartfelt thanks for the many acts of kindness from the community during this difficult time. Special thanks to Father Condon and Pat and Trisha Sweeney for their kind words and gentle guidance.

To all of those who provided food and helped at the reception, especially Anne Morter, St. William's Altar Society and the Ione Good Neighbors Club, we are grateful for the wonderful gathering you hosted for the community. You helped make this truly a celebration of her life with the opportunity to share special memories with friends and family from near and far.

We would be remiss if we did not give special thanks to the caregivers (Meghan, Virginia, Theresa, Cathy, Lela, Kathy, Stephanie, Lois, Heather, & Amy) who allowed Loa the dignity of staying in her home in her final months. Your caring presence when family was unable to be with her allowed us peace of mind and we will never forget the love and care you provided.

We would also like to express our gratitude to everyone who visited, called, sent cards and flowers, and kept Mom in your thoughts and prayers during the past few months. Your incredible kindness and support meant more than words can express.

A great big thank you for all the people who supported the Neighborhood Center during the holidays.

It's because of your generosity that we can have gifts for the seniors and children, and such nice food boxes for those less fortunate.
