CARD OF THANKS

The words thank you fall so far short when you want to relay gratitude to your friends and family whom did so much to take care of you when you were truly in need. I can not express enough the gratitude I feel for those at the sight of my accident, ambulance and the ER crew. Lori Seitz your professionalism in caring for me at the site first as an EMT and second as your sister along with Sandi Patton's help and knowledge keeping me calm and safe was amazing. Wayne, Dustin and Amelia meticulously finding the best trail out towing my sled with your snowmobiles to ease the pain. Steve and the Duncan clan lending and putting together a sled that could make the trip as pain free as it could be. Doug for your caring and work to get the ambulance crew as quickly as possible. Sister Sandi for taking care of the kids and helping them not worry. And Mike for all you did helping everyone, gathering blankets etc! All of you with your kind eyes that assured me it was going to be ok, giving up your coats and blankets in the cold, I could not ask for better friends and family!!!! I don't have enough words for the gratitude for Dr Nichols and your availability at the scene and ambulance being so caring. Todd, your calmness and love lying beside me on the ice for so long I love you!!

The ambulance crew; Lori, Lori, Tareena, Peg, Rusty, and Adam I knew I was in good hands once we started off the hill in your care. You held my hand and calmed me as you did your job so professionally. We are so lucky to have the caring people that we do for emergency response. I was personally very lucky!!!
Last but not least Dr Weinberg and the emergency room staff. You were professional, gentle and kind. We are a very lucky community to have all of you!!! I fear trying to name all of you as I don't want to miss a single one. You each deserve a personal thank you! I could not be more thankful to everyone that helped me that night. You are great friends neighbors and professionals.

With gratitude!!!

This letter is late but the gratitude I am expressing is no less heartfelt. When talking about Heppner while I was living in Portland I was told more than once that it sounded like I was talking about "heaven". In some ways that is true about my feelings.
I moved to Heppner with grand plans to find a home and move my mother, Ada Simpson, in with me. She was 94 years old but we both hoped we would still have a few years together. Unfortunately, I had only been here four days when she had a stroke and after eight days passed away. Moving and losing my mother all within two weeks was a lot for me to process and honestly I don't know if I would have been able to handle it without everyone's support.

Pat and Trisha Sweeney are not only two of my very best friends, but thankfully they are amazing when helping someone in crisis. Pat and Trisha, thank you so much for everything you did for my family and me. You all welcomed me back to Heppner with such love that I never questioned my decision even when everything fell apart. And you took such good care of Mama and helped my brother, sister, and I honor her with the great respect she always showed everyone else.
To Joe Lindsay, thank you for singing the old time hymns that Mama grew up singing in the Spray Baptist church. "The Old Rugged Cross" and "In the Garden" were two of her favorite songs and you did a beautiful job.
I also want to thank Shirley George for welcoming me to Heppner
