

Over the Tee Cup

The Willow Creek ladies held their opening day activities on Tuesday, April 3. The morning started with a greeting by the Willow Creek Country Club board's president, Gary Propheter, and was followed by a delicious breakfast, cooked and served by the ladies' board.

The spring business meeting was held, and a donation to the WCCC to pay half of the cost of replacing new flags, flag sticks, cup liners and putting-green flags was approved by the membership.

The ladies' officers for 2012 are: president, Pat Edmundson; vice-president, Jackie Allstott; secretary-treasurer, Carol Mitchell; and board members, Bernice Lott and Darcee Mitchell.

The scramble team play of the day included a special event of Easter egg prizes hidden around the course for the individual players to find.

Scramble team-play winners for the day were:

First place—Connie Jones, Lorrene Montgomery, Kathy Prater and Nancy Propheter.

Second place—Betty Carlson, Pat Dougherty and Virginia Grant.

Third place (tie)—Kim Seewald, Bev Steagall and Karen Thompson; and Loa Heideman, Darcee Mitchell and Bernice Lott.

The WCCC ladies' club will have a 10 a.m. tee time each Tuesday in April. Participants are asked to arrive 20 minutes early so the committee can assign groups to their starting holes. All WCCC lady members are welcome to join the Tuesday ladies for golf.

Elohim Covenant Church members will be serving lunch on Wednesday, April 18 at St. Patrick's Senior Center. Volunteers needed to help at MS brunch Plans are well underway for this year's Walk MS and brunch in Heppner.

The walk, which raises money for the fight against MS, will feature a "scrumptious" free brunch with breakfast egg casseroles, French toast casseroles, ham, muffins, fruit, milk, juice, coffee and tea, says brunch organizer April Sykes.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. at All Saints Episcopal Church, with the 5K walk to begin at the Heppner City Park at 10 a.m., and the brunch to follow at the church. This is the 13th year the walk has been held in Heppner. It was held in Pendleton last year.

"People have been really wonderful in donating casseroles and other items for the brunch," said Sykes, "but we still need some volunteers to help serve."

Anyone wishing to help out is asked to call her at 541-980-4643 or email her at hiltonsykes@hotmail.com.

Everyone is invited to participate.

Friends of FFA plan meeting

Friends of Heppner FFA will meet Wednesday, April 18 at 7 p.m. in the Heppner High School Ag room. Anyone interested in supporting FFA is invited to attend.
