'Yes For Kids!' kicks into gear

Larry Mills, Chairman of the Yes For Kids! campaign holds one of the yard signs going up around the county to help pass a school levy voters will soon be receiving in the mail. Members of the group come from all areas of the school district, and it was formed to coordinate efforts to pass the levy (see related story, PAGE ONE). In addition to yard signs, they plan newspaper ads, direct mail and door knob hangers urging people to support the funding levy for the Morrow County Schools.

Walk MS Saturday in Heppner

Everyone is invited to attend the Heppner Walk MS, planned for this Saturday, April 21, beginning at All Saints Episcopal Church, located at the corner of Gale and Church streets. Registration gets underway at 9 a.m. with the walk beginning at 10 a.m. and a brunch following.

The free brunch will include ham, breakfast egg casseroles, French toast casseroles, muffins, fruit, milk, juice, coffee and tea. People who have volunteered to bring breakfast items should have them at the church by 9:30 a.m.

Wild West dance Thursday

Heppner Elementary School will kick off spring the western way with a Wild West family dance this Thursday from 7-9 p.m. Desert sounds will provide music for the western swing and line dancing, while FFA students will be present to give roping lessons. Snacks will be served. This free event is sponsored by the HES Parent Teacher Club.

Annual TV shoot scheduled

The annual Ione TV shoot will be held May 5 at the Halvorsen farm, 64688 Halvorsen Rd., near Ione. Classes this year are elk or deer rifle, heavy target or bench guns, or open site at 500 yards.

Registration for the 1,000-yard TV shoot will take place from 8:30-9:30 a.m. Participants are asked to park in the designated area and proceed to the registration area with unloaded rifle, bolt open with several bullets.

The target will be a metal gong the size of a 27" television. Cost is $20 for one shot, with $100 awarded for hitting the gong. If more than one person hits the gong, a shoot-off will commence after everyone has shot. Only one person in each class will win the $100. Classes this year are elk or deer rifle, heavy target or bench guns, or open site at 500 yards.

Food and drink will be available at $8 for adults or $4 for kids 10 and under. Allison & Carey Gun Works from Portland and other contributors will provide free clay shooting. Participants are reminded to bring sunglasses, spotting scope, folding chairs, coat, beverage of your choice and a shotgun for clay pigeons.

All money after expenses will go toward prizes during Ione's 4th of July celebration.

For more info, contact Eric or Brandi Orem at 541-989-9808.

Methodist Church to host guest speakers

On Sunday, April 22, Heppner United Methodist Church will host Jamie and Louise Kienzle, who have served as volunteers in mission in Kenya.

Since 2006, United Methodists from Oregon and Idaho have spent three weeks in Kenya each summer. Teams help with a variety of projects in two communities 200 miles north of Nairobi. The Kienzles will share their experiences in this ministry during the 10:30 a.m. worship service on April 22.

Everyone in greater Heppner is invited to come hear the Kienzles report on this ministry.
