Morrow County 4-H held a western equitation clinic last Saturday at the Morrow County Fairgrounds for area 4-H members.

Horse clinician and 4-H horse judge Wendy Andrews had a great class of members that ranged from junior to senior levels. Proper equipment, tack and equitation horsemanship were topics covered...all information the members would need for their 4-H horse fair and shows.

Participating in the clinic were Hannah Jones, Lilly Sandford, Ashley Price, Miranda Taylor, Vista Sifford and Ivy Sandford. Beautiful spring weather allowed for a great day of riding and learning.

The next 4-H horse clinic will be Sunday, May 20, from 1-3 p.m.

Softball benefit scores big

Last Saturday's softball derby to benefit Sharon Miller was a success on all counts according to participants.

Six teams showed up for the co-ed event, each team sponsored by a local business. Businesses and individuals also donated items to be raffled. Altogether, the event raised around $5,000.

"It was a fantastic event and I think everyone involved had a great time," said Josie Miller. "I know as a family we all feel very honored and blessed to be part of this community and have such a great turnout."

Boardman to sponsor spring clean up

The city of Boardman will sponsor a community-wide clean-up of the month of April.

The city has garbage vouchers available, with a 50 dollar limit, to residents of the city of Boardman. The vouchers are valid during the month of April at Finlay Butte Landfill and the North Morrow Transfer Station.

The garbage voucher program encourages citizens to clean up their residences by disposing of yard debris. City residents may pick up their vouchers at Boardman City Hall at 200 City Center Circle beginning March 30.

For more information on this program, call Boardman City Hall at 481-9252.

No luck involved at Ione's last meet

Cardinals blaze more PRs and benchmarks

The Ione track team attended the Dick Horyna Meet last Friday, April 13, in Stanfield. Men placed 10th; women were 14th. The team boasted six PRs and two more benchmarks.

Francisco Ramirez ran the 800M and the 1500M for the first time, both with good performance. Other PRs were Justin Estabrook in the 200M, Luke Emmel in the 400M, Kaid Peck in the shot put, Emily Holland in the javelin and Dominika Senkerikova in the javelin.

The women's 4x100 relay team also performed well with a new relay member, Emily Holland for Charlotte Burghard, running the third leg.
