Six young members of St. Patrick's Catholic Church received the sacrament of Holy Communion for the first time on Sunday, April 29. The six were: Cori Jo Lindsay, daughter of Joe and Leanne Lindsay; Alex Victorio, son of Delia Victorio; Jace Coe, son of Scott and Nikki Coe; Keegan Steagall, son of John and Jennifer Steagall; Mikel Jaca, son of David and Jennifer Jaca; and Brian Lindsay, son of Barney and Kimberly Lindsay.

This special occasion in their lives was marked with a reception in the parish hall, where the first communicants, family members and friends had a light luncheon and cake. The kids also took time to open gifts from well-wishers as they started a new chapter in their Catholic development. The bright, sunny weather was a double blessing on a memorable day.

Local golfers Austin Gutierrez and Logan Grieb each recently shot holes-in-one at Willow Creek Country Club.

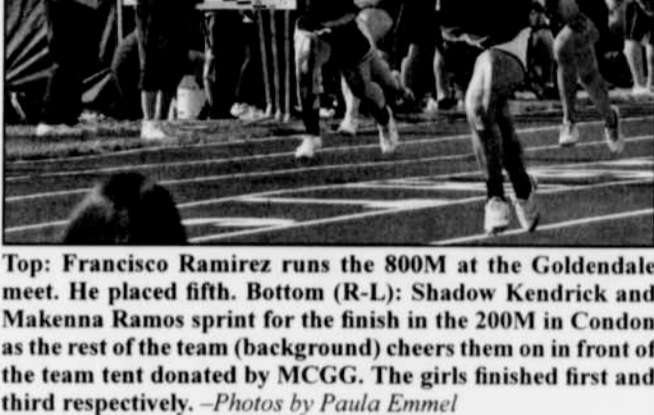

Austin scored his on April 15 at the par three, 157-yard hole 16. He was golfing with his dad, Craig, and used a 7 iron to sink his first ace. Austin is a 16-year-old junior at Heppner High School and is a varsity member of the Mustang golf team.

Logan shot his hole-in-one on April 24 on the par 3, 160-yard hole 5, also using his 7 iron. Logan said he knew he had hit a good shot but, with the elevated green, the hole isn't visible from the tee box. He and fellow golfer Kolby Currin searched around the green until Kolby checked the cup and found Logan's ball. This was Logan's first ace as well. Logan is a 13-year-old seventh-grader at Heppner Jr./Sr. High School and competes in junior golf tournaments throughout the spring and summer.
