Due to great community support, the Morrow County's Relay for Life event was a huge success for our local communities. More information will be sent out soon as a recap of the event. Those who purchased luminaries for a loved one can pick them up at the Community Bank through Friday, July 13. Anyone who would like to make a donation still can; make a donation online through August 31 at <http://relayforlife.org/heppner> or drop it off at Bank of Eastern Oregon, Community Bank or the Heppner Chamber office. We would like to give a "Shout Out" for those food vendors who helped feed the teams as they walked endless laps. Quality Concessions were there from 3 - 11:30 p.m. on Saturday; Team CCS offered a Taco/Enchiladas fundraiser meal from 12-2 a.m. and The Stable of Youth (Bobbette Lovgren) set up from 1-5 a.m. on Sunday morning. Although not all of the money is in yet, we have already raised $18,500; we are hoping to raise at least $20,000 before the campaign ends.

Friday, July 13, 11 a.m. at the Heppner Library: Care to be bugged? Programs for children and adults will be offered for area residents interested in learning more about the fascinating world of insects. The program will be presented by entomologists Dr. Silvia Rondon and Carol Mills from Oregon State University's Agricultural Research and Extension Center. The children's program is targeted for preschool through elementary school ages and will cover these topics: what are insects, good insects and bad insects, how and where to collect them, and how to preserve insects. Children will hear a story from The Beautiful Beetle Book and will enjoy hands-on activities including an insect puzzle and harvesting ants to place in a see-through colony. Samples of interesting insects will be displayed. A second one-hour program will begin at noon at each location, immediately following the children's program. While this program is targeted to adults, children are welcome to attend with their parents. Insect basics, biology and the insect world will be covered in a 30-minute power point presentation. Displays of insects from the laboratory and under microscopes will allow attendees to view main insect pests in the region as well as those that are beneficial. The program is sponsored by Libraries of Eastern Oregon (LEO). For further information, please contact library director Marsha Richmond at 541-481-3365.

July 14-15 from 10 a.m. - 6 p.m., Purple Ridge Lavender Festival: Enjoy live music, wine tasting, food, art, quilts, local vendors, chair massage, photography, lavender products, raffles and more with a suggested donation of $8 to $10 (wine) per person. Relax in the beautiful fields at 29081 Bridge Rd. in Hermiston. For more information and pictures visit www.purpleridgelavender.com. This event will benefit The Agape House.

Friday, July 20, United Way 4th Annual Golf Tournament at Wildhorse Championship Golf Course (8 a.m. Shotgun Start): If you are interested in registering a team or would like to sponsor, contact Cricket Nicholson at 541-276-2661 or email: unitedwayumco@coni.com.

July 26-27, Mental Health First Aid Course, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.: Mental Health First Aid teaches a five-step action plan to offer initial help to people with the signs and symptoms of a mental illness or in a crisis and connect them with the appropriate professional, peer, social or self help care. The training is free for Heppner Community Members and is being sponsored by Community Counseling Solutions. The class will be held upstairs in the Gillam-Bisbee Building (120 S. Main Street). Contact Robin Bredfield at 541-676-5125 or robin.bredfield@gobhi.net for more information or to register for the class.
