Rotten Ralph art coming to Heppner

Eleven Rotten Ralph-inspired paintings by children's book illustrator Nicole Rubel of Aurora, OR will be on display at the Oregon Trail Library District Heppner branch August 1-15; he display will then be at the OTLD Boardman library August 16-29.

The libraries have many of the popular Rotten Ralph children's books by author Jack Gantos available for checkout. The goal of the art show is to inspire art appreciation, and an interest in art history and different art styles.

"Bring the family and stop by and enjoy the colorful display," says OTLD Director Marsha Richmond.

Lutheran church to hold 'yard' sale

A "yard" sale to launch fundraising efforts for replacement of the mossy shake roof at Hope Lutheran Church will be held this Saturday, August 4, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. in Hope's basement, where temperatures are cool all day.

The church is located at the corner of Alfalfa and Cowins in Heppner (near the dam). All items will be sold by donation.

"So you get to decide what's a fair price," says Pastor Katy Anderson.

Call the shared ministry office at 541-676-9970 with questions.

Obituaries

Gerald "Gerry" Erwin Messenger

Gerald "Gerry" Erwin Messenger, 74, passed away July 9, 2012 in his home surrounded by family after a brief battle with pancreatic cancer. A memorial service was held July 21 at Gateway Baptist Church in Portland, OR.

Gerald "Gerry" Erwin Messenger

Gerry was born April 4, 1938 in Heppner, the fifth of six children to parents Truman and Leita (Barlow) Messenger. He attended both elementary and high school in Lexington, where he met his wife, Roberta "Sue" Laney. He joined the U.S. Marines after school; he married Sue when he came home on leave, on October 30, 1956.

After his discharge from the Marines, he worked for a few years on the Marquardt ranch and then moved to Portland, where he worked until his retirement.

Gerry was a man with a big heart who loved to help people and make them smile. He was very active in his church, Evangel Baptist Church, doing anything that needed to be done. When Evangel closed, he attended and was active in Gateway Baptist Church.

He was preceded in death by: his parents; an infant daughter, Elizabeth Kay; and an older brother, Truman Messenger, Jr.

Gerry is survived by: his wife, Sue; daughters, Kathleen (Tim) Fisher and Geraldine (Rich) Glen, both of Portland; son, Gerry (Shari) Messenger of Portland; brothers, Franklin (Gloria) of Hillsboro, OR and Caroll (Vivian) of Beaverton, OR; sisters, Rena (Bill) Marquardt and Betty Marquardt, both of Lexington; 10 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and a host of relatives and friends.

Beth Moore simulcast planned

Best-selling author and nationally acclaimed Bible teacher Beth Moore will bring her "life changing" teaching and worship event, Living Proof Live, to women in south Morrow County and around the world through a global simulcast event on Saturday, Sept. 15.

Beth Moore

The Living Proof Live Simulcast will take place at the First Christian Church in Heppner beginning at 9:30 a.m. Doors will open at 9 a.m. The event, which will be streamed live in HD and broadcast on a large screen at the front of the church sanctuary, is expected to last until about 4:15 p.m.

The simulcast features

Beth Moore's insightful Bible teaching and uplifting messages along with praise and worship led by Travis Cottrell. All area women and girls are invited to attend as much of the day's simulcast as possible. Those who plan to be there during the lunch hour break are encouraged to bring a salad or something to share for a potluck lunch. Willow Creek Baptist Women's Ministries and First Christian Church are the hosts for the event.

Heppner First Christian Church is located at 293 N. Gale Street. Contact Nancy Jepsen at 541-676-5244 for more information.

Benefit dinner planned

Friends of Christy Correa will be hosting a benefit dinner and auction on August 9 at the Heppner Elks Lodge. Correa was recently diagnosed with cancer and will begin treatment later this month.

Social hour will begin at 5 p.m. with dinner served at 6 p.m. The dinner will include tri-tip, cheesy potatoes, green beans, roll and dessert. Cost is $20 for ages 11 and up and $12 for ages 10 and under.

The auction will follow at 8 p.m. and includes items such as a Ruger Blackhawk 41 mag. handgun, custom brush guard, load of gravel, cow elk hunting trip with lodging, one-day guided sturgeon fishing trip, golf items, and tanning/cut/color package, to name a few.

All proceeds from the event will be given to Correa for costs involving her treatment. Donations can also be made at the Bank of Eastern Oregon, where an account has been set up for her.

For more information or to donate to the event, contact Russ Nichols at 541-676-0101.
