

Moon to perform at Music in the Parks Free sports physicals offered

Country singer Cale Moon will perform at Music in the Parks in the Irrigon Marina Park on August 6 at 7 p.m.

Moon is a 17-year-old country singer/songwriter, a country boy whose voice is "as deep and rich as the 100+ songs that he has written."

In 2009, he was chosen to be on Team USA for the World Championships of Performing Arts, in which more than 30 countries competed. He was awarded 14 medals (seven gold, five silver and two bronze), two All-Around plaques, and the glass star for Junior Grand Champion Actor of the World.

In 2010, he was given the opportunity of a lifetime to co-write with renowned song writers Steve Dorff and Bobby Tomberlin on Moon's original song, titled "A Country Song," which is on his first CD "The Beginning," available for sale at CaleMoon.com. In October 2011, Moon recorded his second CD with Fred Vale at Treasure Isle Recorders in Nashville.

While in Nashville recording, Moon was given the opportunity to sing two of his original songs for the Nashville Cowboy Church service. Moon also has been featured on the Good Morning Northwest program on KVEW TV several times, as well as live radio for 102.7 KORD in Kennewick, WA; several other regional radio programs and iHeart radio's "Discover & Uncover" program nationwide.

In 2011, Moon was honored to receive the People's Choice Award at the Columbia River Cowboy Gathering, and won the Muddy Frog Water Festival Talent Show. In 2010, he won the Union Gap Teen Idol, the Valley's Got Talent and the Yakima Valley Talent Round-up.

Cale Moon

Moon was the headline performer for the "Country Music for Our Country" Military Benefit concert in Pendleton, OR. He also performed for Veteran's benefit concerts in West Richland, WA, and at the Elk's Lodge in Milton-Freewater, OR.

Moon was invited to sing on Ed Dailey's "Legends of Country" radio program and has performed for multiple benefit concerts with Ed Dailey. He has performed for numerous city and county fairs, parades, events and fundraisers, including the Pendleton Round-Up and the Central Washington State Fair.

He opened for the Susie McEntire concert in Toppenish, WA and sings for three cowboy churches regularly in Washington, as well as many other churches and events. Moon was the featured artist for the Mabton Jamboree in June 2010.

Moon says his goal is to, "glorify God and to touch the lives of others through his music."

The Morrow County Health District will be again sponsoring free sports physicals for all Morrow County students at Pioneer Memorial Clinic in Heppner in August.

Boys are scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, August 8, from 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m.; girls will be seen on Tuesday afternoon, August 14, from 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. If a student is unable to come on the day designated for boys or girls, they can be seen on the other sport physical day. No appointment is needed.

Parents are reminded that they must complete a questionnaire and sign the examination form before the physical can be performed. Exam forms are available at the clinics. There will be a $30 charge for sports exams scheduled outside of the free dates listed above.

Justice Court Report

Morrow County Justice of the Peace Ann Spicer has released the following Justice Court Report.

-Shawn Eugene Cowett, 47, of Heppner failed to appear on charges of violating the basic rule 75/55 and no operator's license, and was found guilty by default. Fines, fees and assessments totaled $420.
