Wine and micro-beer tasting promises a rollicking good time

The Murray's Country Rose wine and micro-beer tasting has quickly become a much-anticipated fair-time highlight. The 16th annual version of the event promises to be no different.

Tiller's Folly will perform the perfect accompaniment to the evening when they perform Thursday night from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the tasting. Tiller's Folly is a three-piece folk/Celtic band consisting of Bruce Caughlan, Nolan Murray and Laurence Knight. The trio has been in Heppner previously for the fair and the St. Patrick's celebration.

To end the night on the right note, Jamie Nasario and Luke Basile will be performing from 8:30 to 10 p.m. The acoustic duo features a bluesy repertoire delivered by the soul-driven voice of Jamie Nasario and backed by Luke Basile on guitar.

Don't be shy...show off at fair

Have you attended previous county fairs and, while looking at the exhibits, thought to yourself, "I can do that"?

Chances are, you have. Whether it is baking, canning, growing fruits, vegetables or flowers, sewing, crafts, taking pictures or painting, there is a category for you to showcase your talent at the fair.

Even better, it is simple to become an active participant. All one needs to do is to go to the Fair Office, pick up an exhibitor number and a premium sheet and then take the items to the appropriate departments on Monday, August 13 between 1 and 8 p.m.

Fruits, vegetables and flowers are accepted Monday from 5-8 p.m. and Tuesday morning from 8-10 a.m.

Ren'ee Yocom, Fair Secretary, will be happy to answer any questions you have. Office hours are Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. till noon and from 1-5 p.m.

Get cash for Open Class

On Friday, August 17, from 9 a.m. to noon and again from 1-3 p.m., Open Class premiums will be paid in cash at the Fair Office.

This does not include livestock, small animals or 4-H/FFA premiums.
