

2011-2012 Morrow County Fair & Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo Ambassadors

The Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Ambassador program is made up of Morrow County high school age residents willing to promote and participate in the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo. Activities the ambassadors will take part in include parades at county events, Chamber of Commerce events, City Council meetings, and community holiday events.

The 2012-2013 Morrow

County Fair and Rodeo Ambassadors include Tim Nelson, a junior at Heppner High School. This is his second year as an ambassador. He plays football, wrestles, rodeos, and helps his family.

He has been in the Barnyarders 4H group for the last six years and in Heppner High School FFA program for the last five years. He enjoys hunting, fishing, camping and hanging with his family and friends. Tim has participated in the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo for the last six years as a participant and volunteer.

Our other ambassador is Rachel Newport a sophomore at Riverside High School. This is Rachel's first year as an ambassador. Rachel is involved with motocross, volleyball, softball, and doing stats for the wrestling team. Last year was Rachel's first year showing at the Morrow County Fair through the FFA program at Irrigon Jr/Sr High School. She enjoys spending time with her family, friends, and her animals.

The ambassadors hope to see you at the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo August 15 - 19... Country Pride... County Wide at the Morrow County Fair.

Have fun at the fair!
