My, aren't you talented?

Do you know how to play the guitar like Carlos Santana, sing like Faith Hill, or dance like you belong in the Russian ballet? What about juggling, handstands or ventriloquism?

Your talent may not be on that level, but Morrow County contains a wide array of talent; the Morrow County Fair wants residents to come and show off what they can do. On Thursday, August 16, county residents will have the chance to come to the fair, share their talents and possibly win money. The winners in each group will be eligible to go to the State Fair.

See page 141 in the Premium Book for information to enter, or contact CJ Johnson at 676-8479 or Ren'ee Yocom at the Fair Office, 676-9474.

Rawlins honored through floral award

In memory of Jane Rawlins, a long-time fair exhibitor and supporter, the Morrow County Fair Board again will choose the Jane Rawlins Memorial Award for the Best Arrangement at this year's fair.

Rawlins exhibited in the Flower Department for many years, was a fair superintendent, served on the fair committee, was the first woman appointed to the fair board and served many years as a merit rater for the Oregon Fair Association and county fairs in the state.

Exhibitors vie for special awards

Once again, sweepstakes ribbons and gift certificates will be available in the Open Class departments.

One sweepstakes ribbon and gift certificate will be awarded in every Open Class department except livestock and booths. Adults will receive a $25 gift certificate and youth will receive a $15 gift certificate.

2011 talent show participant Mariah Combe

Gift certificates will be given by the Morrow County Fair. They can be redeemed at any Morrow County business; they are good until the end of June.

4-H volunteers needed

The 4-H office is looking for volunteers to help man their fair office during the week of fair. Past 4-H alumni, leaders, parents or anyone who may be interested and willing to help out for an hour or two would be greatly appreciated.

Anyone who is interested can contact the Morrow County Extension Service office at 541-676-9642 for complete details.
