New picnic shelter to be dedicated during fair

After a year of waiting, working and planning, Morrow County residents will finally be able to lay eyes on the new covered picnic shelter at the Morrow County Fairgrounds.

Everyone is invited to a ribbon cutting and dedication of the new shelter on Friday, Aug. 17 at 4:30 p.m. at the fairgrounds, 74473 Hwy. 74, Heppner.

The groundbreaking for the covered picnic area took place last year during the fair. It seemed fitting to coordinators to bring the project full circle by showcasing the completed work at this year's fair.

The picnic shelter is the finished project of the 2011 Morrow County Leadership Team. In January of 2011, 30 Morrow County residents were fortunate to participate in the Ford Institute for Community Building Leadership Development Program, offered by the Ford Family Foundation.

One of the requirements of this program was to select a project that benefited the whole county and one that people could work together complete.

A covered picnic shelter at the Morrow County Fairgrounds was selected as the project, to facilitate a place where fairgoers can escape the sun and rain during the hottest time of the year, as well as provide an event area for weddings, community gatherings and other events.
