

Submit harvest pictures for cash

If you snapped some pictures of your harvest, you may get more than the market price for your crop. The Wheat League is again sponsoring its harvest picture contest, with cash prizes for first, second and third place.

This contest is for adults only. Participants may enter two photos, but only one will be judged. Winners will compete at the state level for the Wheat League and may be chosen for advertisements through Wheat League.

FIRST PRIZE = $35
SECOND PRIZE = $25
THIRD PRIZE = $15

The unending quest for the perfect loaf

Local's legacy survives in bread-baking contest

In honor of Mike Armato's unending quest for the perfect loaf of bread, this year's fair will again feature a bread baking contest in his memory.

Mike, the father of Maggie and Joe Armato, lived in Heppner and was known for his expertise in baking and cooking, especially Italian foods.

Bread entered in this contest may be of any style prepared with yeast. Bread will be judged on taste, appearance and preparation technique. More information can be found on page 57 of the fair premium book.

GET CARE FAST WITH WALLA WALLA'S FIRST AND ONLY INTERVENTIONAL CARDIAC PROGRAM

When it comes to treating a heart attack, time is critical. In addition to our new cardiac catheterization lab and full range of heart services, we're the area's only accredited chest pain center and home to Dr. Bradley Titus, the region's only interventional cardiologist. That makes us the only hospital in the area able to give you the care you need during the crucial first minutes of a cardiac emergency.
