CARD OF THANKS

Saturday morning I looked out my backyard and saw a blanket on the grass with a young mother and three young daughters working on the decorations to hang on the big cherry tree. Soon some students came with two big umbrellas and more tables and chairs and one decorated table with birthday cake to celebrate Ida Farra's 95th birthday party.

Thanks to Kim Ruhl & family and friends for my magic birthday party.

The assisted living and those associated with it would like to take this opportunity to thank their many friends for all their help these last few months.

On going activities that people perform weekly are binge, crafts, music, reading to residents, bringing books and tapes from the library and rides to church.

Donations abound from many individuals, lodges and local stores. They come in the form of money, food and time given. Monetary donations come on a regular basis for activities and someone is always walking through the door to bring prizes for all the games that are played.

Many hours were donated getting the garden ready including the rototilling. Some gave starts from their gardens. One group came to help spruce up the terrace. A recent donation was a new hair dryer for the salon.

Thanks for the numerous visitors that drop by, you are such a welcomed sight for the residents. There are just too many to mention by name for fear of leaving someone out. We want you to know that because of all you do for us we are able to do and have so much more.

We extend a heartfelt thank you to each and every one of you.
