CARD OF THANKS

Thank you to Heppner's City Councilors and staff for the beautiful mural/painting and the nice retirement party- both are greatly appreciated.
Dave Demayo

I have a story I'd like to share. About 23 years ago, a big city girl met a big city boy. As the years went by... marriage...two beautiful children...the girl came to realize that this boy's small town roots played a large part in cultivating the type of person he was, the man she fell in love with. And his fondness for small towns was prevalent in his passion for the outdoors. And that's where this story leads to the town of Heppner, Oregon. My husband has been hunting with his family on Black Mountain, since he was 12 years old. Every year since then, no matter where his life took him, he would always try to make the long trip back to Morrow County, Heppner and "Black" (as he called it). He would scout, hike, camp and hunt deer...

and for Monday Night Football, head down to the tavern and eat a Bucky Burger with a cold glass of beer.
A few weeks ago, my husband made that trip to Heppner, the town he always referred to as "Heaven on Earth." Unfortunately, this trip was to be his last trip.
Through this difficult time for me and my family, the citizens of Heppner have been more than the word, "hospitable," could ever describe. The pride they have for their town and their inherent characteristic of "taking care of one another" are only two of the multitude of words that begin to describe the local residents. Any individual would be more than blessed to acquire even a small percentage of what they possess, as a community. These are the attributes that my husband was, without doubt, consistently drawn to. And thus, his ashes will be scattered on his beloved mountain.
My family and I would especially like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the Morrow County Sheriff's Department (Detective Sergeant Terry Harper), Lexington Auto Body (Carmen, Dale and the crew), and Sweeney Mortuary (Pat and Trisha Sweeney). Your sincere kindness, generosity and trustworthiness have made this, otherwise, difficult period in our life, just a little more manageable.

Your embrace of all of us, as one of your own, is a most enviable quality.
Thank you, again, for making a group of "strangers" feel like they were right at home... indeed...our "home away from home." Something, I have a feeling, my husband always knew deep down in his heart...

HEARTFELT THANKS
After all of the preparation and hard work, the 2012 Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo has come to pass. After all of the chaos of signing up, setting up, and cleaning up it's hard to believe that all of us survived it. And survival would not have been possible without all of the help and support that our community members put forth to make this possible.
On behalf of all of the kids involved in the fair, I would like to thank all of the parents and community members who pitched in to make this possible. I know that when a child signs up for an extracurricular activity, it's almost impossible to achieve without a support group behind them. So parents, and loving community members thank you for everything that you do. I can say first hand, that nothing I have ever strived for would have been possible without the support and guidance that I have received from my friends and family.

I'd also like to give a HUGE thank you to Russ Peak, who was the main entertainment of the Fair; along with the Old Time Fiddlers with their wonderful music, RDO who so graciously put on the traditional Tractor Pull. I know that I had fun watching the little guys and gals pedaling their little hearts out. But none of our entertainment would have been possible without Heppner's sound man, Dale Bates who does such wonderful work. Not only did he supply part of the sound system, and
