

Heppner High news

By Jordan Ann Jones

The Heppner football team has an away game on Friday, Sept. 21, starting at 7 p.m. in Irrigon. The Heppner Junior High football team also will have an away game in John Day against Grant Union on Friday, Sept. 21, starting at 1 p.m.

The Heppner volleyball team will have three home games this week. They will play against Irrigon on Thursday, Sept. 20, at 5 p.m., with another game on Saturday, Sept. 22, against Enterprise/Union starting at noon. A third home game will be Tuesday, Sept. 25, at 5 p.m. against Condon. Junior High volleyball has a game Friday, Sept. 21, in Riverside at 3 p.m.

Our volleyball girls and football boys say they would love to see the community supporting and cheering them on.

One of this week's featured seniors' is Cidney Nicole Coster. Her mother is Mindy Coster; she has three siblings, Brittney Boothe, Kacy Coster and Kaleb Coster. Cidney was born in Pendleton, OR but she has lived in Heppner her whole life. She plays softball, and is currently the senior class treasurer. When she has spare time, she enjoys spending it with her friends and family. As a fun fact, Cidney's favorite color is green and her favorite food is lasagna. After Cidney graduates from Heppner High, she wants to attend Mt. Hood Community College so she can become a surgical technician.

Our other senior for the week is Larissa Lee Gray; her parents are Terry and Kellie Gray, and she has three siblings, Amber Gray, Kacie Gray and Havin Gray. Larissa was born in Pendleton, OR but she has lived here her whole life. Larissa enjoys hanging out with her boyfriend, Tom Gould; when she's not with him, you can find her playing softball. Larissa's favorite color is neon orange, and her favorite food is spinach ravioli. After high school, Larissa plans on continuing her education and getting a degree in dental hygiene. To continue her education, Larissa wants to attend Mt. Hood Community College.

Community lunch menu

Willow Creek Baptist Church members will be serving lunch on Wednesday, Sept. 26, at St. Patrick's Senior Center.

The meal will include meatloaf, mashed potatoes and gravy, green beans, carrots, hot rolls and ice cream. Milk is served at each meal. Suggested donation is $3.50 per meal. Menu is subject to change.
